"God Is Our Refuge and Strength"

- ¹ God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.
- ² Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change,
though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea;
- ³ though its waters roar and foam,
though the mountains tremble with its tumult. (Psalm 46:1-3)

This month marks the 15th anniversary of the September 11th terrorist attacks. Many still remember where they were at the moment they heard the tragic news. I was in my study at Camp Hill UMC, where I had been pastor for just ten weeks. Janie Stover was with me, working in the church office. Someone called the church and reported that a plane had just crashed into the North Tower of the World Trade Center. Janie told me. Students were kept at school. Airports were shut down. Watching television news reports there was great uncertainty. Throughout the day news of the horrible events unfolded.

In all, 2,996 people died in the attacks that day. Some were at work in the WTC or at the Pentagon. Some were aboard one of the four planes commandeered by terrorists. Some were firefighters, EMT's, and law enforcement officers. The victims will never be forgotten. Nor will the heroic efforts of first responders. Many sacrificed their lives to save others.

In the days following the attacks, we watched and prayed as search and rescue teams worked tirelessly to find survivors and loved ones of victims waited. Flights were cancelled. It was eerily quiet in our neighborhood, on the path of flights into and out of HIA. Like many area churches, ours had a special prayer service on Friday of that week. A man from Florida, in town on business, was there. He tearfully told us that his son's best friend was a pilot aboard one of the downed planes. Many hearts were grieving as we held one another close, sang hymns, and prayed. Church attendance on the Sundays that followed 9/11 soared. In this time of national crisis, people turned to God.

On 9/11 we experienced what the psalmist wrote about long ago in Psalm 46. The psalm describes earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, and roaring seas that alter the landscape. Terrorists attacks on American soil changed the landscape of our lives. The whole nation was on alert. The Department of Homeland Security was formed. Airport security was heightened. A month after 9/11, I took a flight with a friend to Connecticut. Before we boarded the plane, I was randomly pulled out of the line, taken behind a curtain, and searched. National leaders wrestled with options for defeating Al Qaida. Soon, troops were deployed to Iraq, then Afghanistan. Fifteen years later, the war against terror continues.

We live in a post-9/11 world, but, as Psalm 46 reminds us, we need not live in fear. "God is our refuge and strength, our very present help in trouble." Day to day pours forth signs of God's grace. God is with us in our homes and schools and workplaces. In our life together at First Church and in our community.

On Sunday, September 11, we will honor first responders from our church and community in our worship services. We will also begin a new season in our Sunday school and gather later in the day for our annual church picnic. We join in prayer for community servants and for peace in our world. We also join in study, fellowship, and service as we build a loving community in Christ. Through it all, our eyes are on God who leads us into the future with hope.

Acolytes Needed!

Hey Kids in grades 3-6! Have you ever wondered:

- * who gets to light those candles on the altar,
- * what's it like to sit on one of those big, comfy chairs at the front of the Sanctuary,
- * what does the congregation look like to the Pastors,
- * what do the stained glass windows look like when the sunlight streams through them,
- * how do the Pastors know what words to sing without looking at the big screen, and/or
- * how can a kid like me help with Worship, Communion, Baptism, and Advent?

You can find out the answer to all of these questions by volunteering to be an acolyte! It's a great way to learn about worship and see the service from a whole new perspective.

Interested? Contact Colin Knott at 691-1183 or wereknotthome@verizon.net to sign up for a short instructional session that we'll schedule at your family's convenience in late September or early October. See if acolyting is your way to worship in a whole new light!

What is Mission Central?

Mission Central is the mission warehouse of the Susquehanna Conference of the United Methodist Church. Since it's beginning in 2002, Mission Central has had 3 points of focus: Disaster Response, Mission Outreach and Mission Education.

Mission Central's goal is to connect God's resources with human need. We have been able to assist people locally, nationally and globally and have provided aid to people in need for every major weather disaster since 2002.

What are the proceeds used for?

The run is being held to help with Mission Central's daily expenses. By opening our doors each day, Mission Central was able to reach 2 Million people last year alone, with 58% of our warehouse output remaining in Pennsylvania! We hope to top that number this year.

Music

Ringling in the News

Wow. What an experience in Vancouver. Picture 750 ringers in front of you all ringing the same piece. Many were treated to this experience including eleven family members of our choir. Our Vancouver 11 worked hard to come together with those other 740 ringers. It was no small feat considering the time constraints and the language barriers. Workshops were also offered ranging from enhancing ringing techniques to experiencing the native Canadian culture. One evening was spent enjoying native Canadian music and dance as well as a delicious meal featuring salmon and bison meatloaf. Various concerts and other activities were included in the entire experience. After the conclusion of the Symposium the choir and family members were able to stay and tour the Vancouver area. Ask any of the group and they will be happy to tell you of their experience. A big heartfelt thank you goes out to all who helped financially for these people to attend this symposium.

Now that the fall activities are approaching, it is time to think of what you will be part of. The Bell Choirs are always looking for new players. There are two separate choirs. The first meets on Monday nights from 7 till 8:30 and has already begun to practice. You are still invited to come and play. It typically is the one that does some extra concerts out in the community as well as playing in church once a month and doing a concert at the church in the spring. The second choir meets on Wednesday evenings at 7 for an hour beginning September 7th. This choir plays once a month in church and is part of the concert in the spring. All ages are encouraged to play from youth on up. Chime choirs for first through sixth grade will begin sometime in October.

Don't miss our annual chicken barbeque. It will take place on October 1st this year. See any member of the choirs for tickets or sign up in the book at the information desk. This year the pie sale will be November 19th. Watch for the signup sheets.

Remembering 9/11

During worship on September 11 we will honor all first responders in observance of the 15th anniversary of the 9/11 attacks. If you are a First Church member who has served or currently serves as a first responder in our area, we hope you will be with us in worship on this special day.

We will never forget what happened on that day; never forget the lives that were lost, and never forget the men and women who sacrificed their safety and lives to save others.

In grateful response, please also invite all local first responders that you know and their families to worship with us that day. Light refreshments, juice and coffee will be served in between services in the multi-purpose room as a way of saying “thank you” for the courage and daily sacrifice on our behalf.

Access Ministry

The Irresistible Church

“Instead of creating another program, let's examine what the church would look like if everyone, regardless of disAbilities or extraordinary Abilities, was embraced as a fully functioning member of the Body of Christ. Regardless of cognitive processing, verbal communication, behavioral struggles, or physical ability, each member would be valued as a person flawlessly created in the image of God, and the church family would receive each member's God-given gifts with joy. Such a church would be irresistible, not just to families affected by disAbility who are looking to be loved for who they are, but for anyone skeptical that the church holds a place for them. Additionally, each of us would recognize the unconditional love of such a church by seeing how those with disAbilities belong unconditionally.

This larger dream requires change. The change is easy to identify but takes intentional effort to implement. When families affected by disAbility are asked what they desire in a church, they overwhelmingly share two dreams: accessibility and acceptance. Accessibility to existing structures, programs and people is imperative. Acceptance with a sense of belonging extended from others who also use and benefit from the structures, programs and fellowship of the church is equally necessary. Accessibility and acceptance usually grow when a group of people understands God's attitude toward those with disAbilities. This group then uses the church's strengths and mission to develop a solid plan.” Start with Hello, Joni & Friends; Kate Bruek

First Church is stepping into this “solid plan!” The first step? Asking God.....praying! This is a step that everyone can take. You may never become involved with disAbility ministry in a hands-on kind of way (but we hope you will!). Even so, you can pray. We can all pray! This is such a critical step. Won't you please join others who are also taking this new ministry opportunity to God in prayer? Here's how:

- * ASK GOD to prepare the hearts of leadership, the congregation, and families in the community who are affected by disAbility.
- * ASK GOD to send workers into this specific field of harvest / field of ministry.
- * ASK GOD for wisdom as we journey together toward full engagement in ministry to and with the disAbility community.

Thank you so much for your prayerful support. The next steps will soon be shared and we can all look forward to making this journey together. Please contact Lisa Wickenheiser for more information. 649-0993 or the7wicks@verizon.net.

UMW Harrisburg District Annual Day

All are invited to attend the UMW Harrisburg District Annual Day on Saturday, September 17 at Calvary United Methodist Church in Harrisburg. "David Norris will discuss climate justice, which means setting right our relationships with each other and the earth. Climate injustice is the result of climate change. This topic will challenge you to see what needs to happen for climate justice to become a reality in the world today. The church needs to more powerfully model a way of doing it differently. This will entail not just focusing on the environment, but also asking hard questions regarding financial profit, a growing economy, our independent way of thinking and our understanding of efficiency."

Registration is $7 and includes lunch. To register or if you have questions, contact Lori Hoffnagle at 717-215-5600 or l_hoffnagle@yahoo.com.

Men's Ministry

Men of First Church

Did you know we have a men's group that meets on the 1st and 3rd Wednesday evening at the church? If you are looking for a way to connect with other Christian men from our church and deepen your faith then you should come check it out! Beginning on Sept 7th and continuing throughout the fall we will begin watching and discussing Focus on the Family's, "The Truth Project." Our small group experience will be led by Wayde Leister in a comfortable and informal setting. Each meeting will have a video lesson delivered by Dr. Del Tackett, followed by our own discussion. While the lessons build on one another, each lesson is presented as its own topic, so if you can't make every meeting you are still welcome and encouraged to attend.

Here is an overview of the lesson series:

"Many of today's believers live very similarly to non-believers. A personal sense of significance is rarely experienced, we spend our money and time on things that fail to satisfy and we begin to wonder what life's ultimate purpose really is. We are, in short, losing our bearings as a people and a nation... As it has been throughout history, God continues to call ordinary people to make an eternal difference in our world."

In an effort to find ways to set ourselves apart and make a difference in this world, we will gather together to learn, discuss, and share. Please join us on the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of each month from 8:00-9:30pm in room B005 (in the youth Sunday school wing). If you have questions, please feel free to reach out to John Bowen (bowenhome720@gmail.com) or Barry Eaton (theaton5@verizon.net). We hope to see you there!

Library

Yesterday I got an email that started off with “Now that summer is winding down,” and I silently started screaming, “No, no, no!” Yet here I am writing about books for September. If you are now reading this in the September newsletter, you know I haven’t stopped time, and summer is officially over. Since there is nothing you can do about it, you can prepare for the coming of autumn by getting some good books out of the church library to read while waiting for your child, for new programming on TV, or football season to start. I have just entered two new books into the computer, and I can’t wait to tell you about them.

Rachel Hauck has been writing about weddings for several years. First she wrote The Wedding Dress, then The Wedding Chapel, and now The Wedding Shop. Though not a series, each book has had a theme of intertwining a younger person’s story with an older person’s story set in the town’s wedding shop. Cora Scott inherited her great aunt’s wedding shop in the early 1930’s. Brides come from far and near to select a dress for their special day and experience Cora’s famed bridal treatment. While serving others, Cora is waiting for her own true love to return from the river and make her his bride. As the years pass Birch Good tries to woo Cora and show her he is a dependable man. But Cora is determined to wait for her one true love. Now eighty years later Air Force Captain Haley Morgan has returned home to Heart’s Bend after leaving the service. Haley has suffered the loss of not only her best friend, but also the betrayal of the man she loved. Now she is searching for a place to start again. As Cora and Haley’s stories weave together in the wedding shop, find out how each woman finds strength, courage and of course love to enable them to go on with their lives. This story will touch your heart in a special way—Don’t miss it.

If you are like me and need a little more adrenaline in your books, author Lynette Eason is the person to look for on the shelf. Book two in the Elite Guardians series has arrived. Without Warning is the story of restaurant owner Daniel Matthews who has become a target of someone who wants to put him out of business. Katie Singleton, member of the Elite Guardians, was driving by when she notices police at a friend’s restaurant. She knows Daniel from having his niece in her self-defense class. At first, despite the two crimes at his businesses, he is reluctant to hire a bodyguard, but as things escalate, he needs Katie, if only to keep his niece safe. Ms Eason always takes her readers on a twisting and turning plot line sprinkled heavily with romance. Don’t miss this page turner—it will make any “waiting” more fun.

All of us in the library would like to thank you for your support at the annual book sale. Thank you for your great donations and purchases the day of the sale. It keeps our shelves stocked with the newest and best in Christian books.

See you in the library.

New Office Ministry Partner

Have you noticed the addition of color to the weekly bulletins, inserts and this newsletter? This is due to our newest Office Ministry Partner, "Tosha". "Tosha" is one of 3 new Toshiba copiers we are leasing through DOCEO Office Solutions. DOCEO presented us with a program they offer to churches that provides unlimited copies, monochrome and color, and saves us money! All 3 copiers are an upgrade from what we had, plus they have additional features. While "Tosha" may look intimidating, she is really quite nice and user friendly. However, with her additional features come more places for possible paper jams. Please allow the Office Manager to assist you when you have questions and when there may be a paper jam.

The Office Ministry is excited to be able to provide more vibrant publications for First Church's ministries while also saving money!
