*Opening Doors with Christ,
One Another and Our Neighbors*

"Cross in the Marketplace"

Since our April newsletter is distributed the last week of March, it's like you are reading this during Holy Week. Once again this year we will journey with Jesus through his final week with our annual Passion Play, our Maundy Thursday Communion, and our Easter Celebrations. In addition, we will join with congregations from Mechanicsburg Borough and Upper Allen Township in a Good Friday Prayer Walk.

Groups will meet at six different host churches, including our church, at Noon. From each location we will walk together and stop for prayer at our schools, our fire companies, our police station, businesses and churches. At 1:15 p.m. we will meet at the First Church of God near the square for a brief time of worship, prayer, and fellowship.

Those of us who have been involved in planning this event are excited about the opportunity to make such a powerful, unified witness for Christ in our community. The Prayer Walk is one of many positive ways God is moving to unite us, across denominational lines, for the sake of reaching our Mechanicsburg area with the Good News!

In preparation for our Holy Week Services, our Prayer Walk, and Easter, I came across this thought-provoking statement by George MacLeod, one of the most influential pastors in the Church of Scotland in the 20th Century, and founder of the Iona Community, Scotland. These words are just as relevant for us in 2018 as they were when MacLeod wrote them in the last century:

I simply argue that the cross be raised again at the center of the market place as well as on the steeple of the church. I am recovering the claim that Jesus was not crucified in a cathedral between two candles, but on a cross between two thieves; on the town garbage heap; at a crossroad so cosmopolitan that they had to write his title in Hebrew and in Latin and in Greek; at the kind of place where cynics talk smut, and thieves curse, and soldiers gamble. Because that is where he died. And that is what he died about. And that is where Christians ought to be, and what Christians ought to be about.

Picture the cross not just in the church, but in the middle of town, is a powerful reminder of who we are and where we ought to be. As we walk with Jesus to the cross and celebrate his Resurrection, may we also consider what it looks like to represent Christ amid the realities of day to day life. "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son,..." (John 3:16a). In the name of our crucified Lord, we are called to love the world as well.

Serving with you,
Pastor Denny

Library

It is hard to believe, but the current library opened twenty years ago this October. I have been writing the newsletter almost that long. If you know me, you know I have a story for every occasion—so much so my friends and family do a lot of eye rolling. But this morning as I sit here staring at the computer, I may be tapped out. You will probably get this newsletter right before Easter, so there is no holiday theme to rely on. Guess we will have to skip the fun chatter and go straight to the book review.

One of my favorite authors is Terri Blackstock. Her latest series If I Run is coming to a conclusion with the book “If I Live”. Cassie Cox has been on the run after being framed for her best friend’s murder in the first book (aptly named “If I Run” and followed by the second book “If I Live”). Dylan Robert’s was hired by the murdered victim’s family to track her down, but after his initial investigation, he realizes that Casey is not a killer, and he has dedicated himself to protect her against all odds. But time is running out, and Casey is running out of places to hide. Dylan has come under attack, and his life is also in danger. Will one of them have to sacrifice their own life to save the other? Be prepared to stay up late reading this page turner!

Beverly Lewis has been a favorite in the library since its opening. Most of her books are set in Lancaster County. “The Road Home” is no exception for her. The only quirk is the main character, Lena Rose Schwartz, is not a fan of Lancaster County when the book opens. When her home burned down in Michigan killing her parents, she and her siblings were separated and sent to live with various relatives. Missing all that Lena holds dear, she longs for the day she will be old enough to marry her Michigan beau, Hannes, and move back to be with her family. But Hannes was not a man her father approved of, and maybe she was sent far away from home to forget him. Find out if Lancaster becomes home for Lena or if she returns to Michigan.

If neither of these books is right for you, stop in the library and let us help you find just the right book.

See you in the library where there is rarely a wait for your favorite book!

Praying Follower

Love & sympathy...

to the family upon the death of Don Adams on February 21.

Each year on the first Thursday in May our nation pauses to observe a National Day of Prayer. On that day we focus on praying for our people, our community, our military, our leaders, our government and our nation’s impact on the world for God’s glory.

Locally, First United Methodist Church is hosting a National Day of Prayer Gathering for the Mechanicsburg community on Thursday, May 3 from 12:00- 2:00 pm. You are invited to come and pray in the sanctuary together, then stay for a light lunch. This event is free, but please contact Tina Eaton if you will be staying for lunch.

The theme and focus this year is UNITY. Together let’s exercise one of our most precious freedoms... the right to gather, turn to God and pray.

If you cannot attend, we encourage you to pray from your home or place of work. Prayer guides are available at the display in the church lobby. If you have questions, please contact Tina Eaton at adultministry@fumchurch.com or call 717-766-4611.

Have You Heard of Equine Therapy?

On Sunday, April 22nd we will observe DisAbility Awareness Sunday. Speaker Ben Nolt from CATRA (Capital Area Therapeutic Riding Association) will join us in the multi-purpose room during the Sunday School hour to explain what Equine Therapy is, the various benefits, and ways to be involved. During the morning services and afternoon Rejoicing Spirits service we will praise God that each of us is fearfully and wonderfully made. Plan now to attend. Every person is created with intention.

The “Be One, Make One” Challenge Continues!

On January 1st we began our “Be One, Make One” challenge by focusing on being Lifelong Learners who continually grow by studying God’s word. During that time we started our daily Bible reading plan together.

During the season of Lent we focused on being Praying Followers who faithfully listen in order to discern God’s will and respond to God in prayer every day. During this season we added journaling our Bible study reflections and our prayers to our daily routines as disciples.

Now that we are entering the Easter season, we will focus on being Passionate Worshipers who glorify God in our personal lives every day. What does that mean? It means that, no matter what we are doing, we make sure we are doing it for God. We are Christ’s ambassadors and it is our responsibility to honor and praise the one who sends us to carry His message into the world through both our words and our actions.

It also means that we participate in corporate worship each week. Why is this important? It’s important because God did not design us to be solitary Christians. He created us to be knit together as the body of Christ. Together we are God’s masterpiece! When we worship together we praise and celebrate, we pray and sing, and we give in response to His word. When we worship together we are better able to gain knowledge and wisdom, and we grow closer to God and to one another. When we worship together we experience love from our Father and from one another in a way that strengthens, encourages and equips us so that we can go out into the world to glorify him!

So, if you haven’t already, accept the challenge and bring a friend... a piece of the body is missing without you!

Worship through Music

Our Annual Spring Handbell Concert will be Sunday, April 22, at 7pm. Mark your calendars now! Our theme this year is “Hymns We Know and Love”! You will recognize all the pieces we play! Re-Creation Concert in June!

First Church is excited to host ‘Re-Creation’ on June 23 and June 24. This team of talented performers travels across the United States to inspire and enhance the lives of hospitalized veterans with their uplifting performances. The group is known as ‘America’s ambassadors to hospitalized veterans,’ as they have served across our nation in VA Medical Centers and State Veterans homes for 40 years. We have a special connection to this particular group, as Sharon and Rick Kauffman’s granddaughter, Gabrielle, is one of the performers! Re-Creation will perform a high energy concert on Saturday night and will lead worship at both 8:15 and 10:45 a.m. worship services. The free Saturday night concert will be advertised to the public with a special invitation to veterans. As we look forward to this wonderful opportunity, we will be asking for church members to serve as hosts to the cast members and we will be planning a church pot luck dinner before the Saturday evening concert. If you would be willing to host a cast member or help in the planning of the concert, please contact Rick Kauffman at smkrak423@yahoo.com or Lori Hoffnagle at outreach@fumchurch.com. We look forward to sharing this amazing concert with our community and veterans!

Thank you...

We would like to thank Pastor Denny, Pastor John , Deb Karns and the congregation for their visits , prayers, and support during our father, Donald Adams, recent illness and passing. The support and love we felt from so many helped us through this time. Pat Shannon, Jenny Brillhart , Connie Kuntz

*To all Women & Men Volunteers at the Day of Pampering:
 Thank you so very much for volunteering to make my day so enjoyable and relaxing. This was my 2nd year to attend and once again, it was awesome! From the moment I was welcomed in the parking lot until I left holding my bouquet of flowers, your kindness and generosity were greatly appreciated. May you all continue to do great things with God's guidance. Sincerely, Cindy Gifford*

On December 6th 2017 members of Ruth Circle gathered at Hoss' for lunch and our meeting to follow. When the waitress came to take our orders, she informed us that our bill would be paid by a very generous person. This is the 5th time that our circle has received this very generous offer. Members of Ruth Circle then decided to take another offering. We were, again, able to increase our annual gift to New Life for Girls and Domestic Violence. Members of Ruth Circle wish to thank this very generous person once again.
