Opening Doors with Christ, One Another and Our Neighbors

"Listening Well"

God made us to be relational people. True contentment is found not in wealth, not in travel, not in a 50 inch, high-definition television, but in loving relationships with God and others. The opposite is also true. Being out of sync with God, or being in a conflicted relationship brings discontent and heartache.

A vibrant spiritual life, a mutually fulfilling marriage, a healthy family life, and enriching friendships are all treasures. Yet, developing these relationships as imperfect people living in an imperfect world is not easy. How can we build healthy relationships with God and others?

The apostle James, in his New Testament letter, gives us wise instruction:

Know this, my dear brothers and sisters: everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to grow angry. (James 1:19)

James' words are so important because the human instinct to talk is stronger than the instinct to listen. The words of Proverbs 18:2, could well have been written today:

Fools find no pleasure in understanding, but only in expressing their opinion.

In a world of people that are eager to get in the first word, to win the argument, to sway others to their side, we are called to follow the example of Jesus, the greatest listener that ever walked the earth.

Listening, for Jesus, started with listening to his heavenly Father. He found quiet places of prayer. Additionally, Jesus listened to people (and I imagine he was listening to the Father while he was listening to people). Jesus responded so uniquely to the people he encountered. It's so inspiring to see the individual way Jesus dealt with each person and the individual way he deals with us because he listens.

My challenge to myself and to you is to really listen. Really listen to God, both in your devotional time and in the midst of your daily activity. Really listen to your spouses, your children, your grandchildren. Really listen to your friends, your neighbors, your co-workers.

1. Listening shows you love. By listening you put aside your agenda and give your full attention to the one you are listening to.
2. Listening shows you care. By listening you convey your desire to understand what the one you are listening to is experiencing, feeling, and thinking.
3. Listening shows you value others. By listening you take the time to get to know people, their situations, their stories, the way Jesus did. It is a great honor to get to do this!

As I think about the example of Jesus, and reflect on the teaching of James, my prayer for our church family is that we would excel in listening! Listening builds loving relationships. Lord, teach us all to listen!

Joining you in building loving relationships, I am,

Pastor Denny

Take the Challenge!

Have you accepted the Be One, Make One Discipleship Challenge yet? If not, please join us on this adventure! Simply visit the display in the church lobby, pick up a Common English Bible with a reading plan and begin reading. Then come on Sundays to worship God and learn from the sermons, which dig deeper into the weekly readings.

Beyond the challenge to become a lifelong learner of God's word through study and worship, also look in this monthly newsletter or the weekly bulletins for ways to grow as a disciple of Jesus through opportunities to pray, build relationships, give generously and dedicate yourself in missions!

Summer Studies

Looking for a new way to grow, learn and get into God's Word this summer? Then consider coming to Sunday School from 9:30-10:30 am while you are here for worship! We have two separate classes meeting this summer through September 2, and you can drop in any time:

1. Combined Sunday School class is studying Gospel Shaped Outreach, a curriculum focused on equipping us to share our love for Jesus in a way that is contagious! Come to learn from dynamic guest teachers and grow in your understanding of who Jesus is and how to share His message. (For a schedule of guest teachers, please refer to the Dedicated Missionary section of the newsletter.)
2. The Guyer Class, a deeply rooted group of elders in the church, learn from highly regarded teachers and pastors. Lessons are based on the United Methodist Quarterly Adult Bible Study. Class meets in room 123.

Bible Studies Coming This Fall

Here's a "sneak peek" at what's coming this fall... keep an eye out for more details in the weekly bulletins later this month:

- Thursday Morning/Evening Bible Study (with Juanita Guise) – Romans
- Sunday Evening Men's Bible Study (with Ken Guise/David Mengle) – Romans
- Wednesday Evening Bible Study (with Pastor Denny) - Based on Bible reading plan

Library

August. My fingers defiantly refused to type that because it means summer is racing by much too quickly. So even though I made myself identify this article for the August newsletter, my brain keeps chanting, "It's only July". Breathing a sigh of relief, I can now tell you about the newest and best of Christian fiction that you will be delighted to find in our church library next month!!!

Lynette Eason has long been one of my favorite mystery writers. Oath of Honor started her Blue Justice Series, and if you missed it, it is on the shelf. Her second book, Called to Protect, combines a mystery with the added interest of a K-9 partnered with Police Officer Chloe St. John. After Chloe was dumped by her fiancée, she has decided Hank, her German shepherd partner, is the only male she will ever trust. Her focus is now entirely on the human trafficking cases on her desk. When a task force is formed to find U.S. Marshall Blake Callum's missing daughter, Chloe and Hank are called to help. Traffickers have kidnapped Blake's daughter in order to force Blake to murder the judge he is protecting. Even though he is threatened to not tell anyone, Blake risks his daughter's life by refusing to obey the edict. While racing to find the girl, protect the judge, and track down the bad guys, Chloe feels drawn to this suffering, but honorable man. But can she really allow her heart to trust again? I won't spoil the plot, but I will tell you Ms. Eason always delivers a heart pounding, twisting and turning mystery.

If you know me or have been reading this newsletter for the past twenty years, you know not only do I love a good mystery, but I also love reading historical books. When my Sunday school class was studying Moses this year, it was mentioned that the midwives were instructed by Pharaoh to kill all male children born to Jewish women. So many times history repeats itself, like when Helene Hannemann is given instructions to kill the newborns in Auschwitz concentration camp. Auschwitz Lullaby written by Mario Escobar is the fictional account of her story. Though Helene is a purebred German, her husband is not, which "taints" the children. Refusing to be separated from her family, she boards the cattle cars with them and ends up in Auschwitz. When she reveals she is a trained nurse, she is forced to work in the camp hospital which is overseen by the notorious Dr. Joseph Mengele. Helene sees what is truly happening and does everything in her power to protect the children and newborns, even if it may cost her life. For some, she is a strand of light that they cling to in this evil place. If you want to see how one person can make a difference even against overwhelming odds—this is the book for you. It will be on the new cart mid-August.

Don't forget our book sale August 18th. A great place to stock up for the year!

See you in the library!

Pam & Donna

Backpack Blessing Sunday, August 19

School aged children are invited to bring their backpacks to either the 8:15 or 10:45 worship service for a special blessing to be prayed over their backpacks. We will pray for a safe and wonderful school year and for all our students, teachers, school administrators and school support staff. New this year, several local churches will offer a special prayer time at local schools from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. that afternoon. Details can be found in the bulletin closer to the date.

Igniting a Passion to Pray

Women tend to worry – it's just a part of our human nature, but prayer has the ability to change everything! This fall First Church will be offering a study called Igniting a Passion to Pray. This study will guide women through the Four Steps of Prayer; praise, confession, thanksgiving and intercession. Come to grow, gain confidence in your prayer life and discover the important role you have in releasing God's power to accomplish His work on earth! Make a note now to look for more details in the weekly bulletins later this month.

Moms in Prayer

Did you know that through Moms in Prayer International, thousands of mothers around the world gather together in groups to passionately pray for the lives of their children in more than 140 countries? The impact on children, their teachers and their schools is profound, and it is life-changing for the mothers who pray as well!

In addition to groups meeting in homes to pray for specific schools, and the children and teachers who attend those schools, there is an "open group" that meets here at First Church. This group, led by Deb Noss, will resume meeting for the 2018/19 school year on Monday evenings beginning August 27 from 7:00 – 8:00 pm in the Prayer Room (2nd floor elevator landing).

All mothers are invited and no prayer experience is required. Your child can be any age/any stage of life. And what is prayed in the group stays in the group, so don't worry – your prayer requests will remain private within the group.

Please contact Deb Noss at sdppp@msn.com or Tina Eaton at adultministry@fumchurch.com or call 766-

4611 if you have questions or would like to join this group. You can also check out momsinprayer.org if you would like more information about this organization or would like to search for another group that fits your schedule.

Missions in Sierra Leone

Thank you to everyone for your support of the Baked Good Giveaway on July 22. We were so blessed by many donations and ever more blessed by the opportunity to share with everyone about the parsonage rebuild project and our 2019 trip to Sierra Leone.

Parsonage Rebuild Project: During a trip to Taiama, Sierra Leone in 2016 and spending time with the pastor and others at Calvary United Methodist Church in Taiama, the many needs of the church and community were shared. This information was provided to the Mission Committee of First Church. After much discussion and communication with Sierra Leone’s bishop, John Yambasu, it was decided that First Church would fund the Parsonage Rebuild Project. The much needed repairs and updates to the parsonage are necessary to allow a safe and healthy home for the pastor and to allow his wife to live with him in Taiama.

The total cost of the project is estimated at $31,688. The project is divided into 4 phases. First Church has been able to provide the funds for phases 1 through 3, a total of $28,100. As the work on completing the repairs continues in Taiama, First Church is still working on raising the funds for the final phase. So far, we have $205, leaving us with $3,382 to raise.

If you would like to help finish this project, you can make a donation through the church by designating the donation for “Parsonage Rebuild Project”. There are envelopes at the Sierra Leone display in the tower hallway for your convenience. Also, check out the display for updates on the progress of the project.

2019 Mission Trip to Sierra Leone: The next trip to Sierra Leone is planned for January 19 through February 2, 2019. During this time, the team will be attending the Sierra Leone Partners Conference, Sierra Leone’s Annual Conference, and visiting Taiama, where our partner church, Calvary United Methodist Church is located.

Stop by the Sierra Leone display in the tower hallway and pick up an information pamphlet for more details.

UMW Yard, Book and Bake Sale

We continue to collect school supplies for the UMW Yard, Book and Bake Sale! Please bring in the following and place them in the marked bin outside the multipurpose room: blunt scissors, small box of crayons, pencils, erasers and glue sticks. We are very short on blunt scissors! These items will be placed in hand made school pouches and given away free to children who visit the yard sale. Thanks to the wonderful women of Squares and Prayers for making the pouches!

You can also donate gently used household items to the sale with the proceeds going to the Youth Mission Trip. Bring your items to room 105 the week of the sale, August 13 to 17. We're sorry, but we cannot accept furniture or large electronics. The library will be accepting gently used books, dvds, cds, and puzzles for both children and adults. The Bell Choir will be serving up sandwiches, drinks and snacks, while the UMW ladies will be tempting you with delicious baked goods. So mark your calendars, you won't want to miss this fun day and an opportunity to boost the UMW's ability to help women locally and around the world. If you have questions about the sale, contact Lori Hoffnagle at outreach@fumchurch.com. See you there!

More information can be found on our website at fumchurch.com.
