Opening Doors with Christ, One Another and Our Neighbors

"The Return"

We are returning. We are returning to classrooms and workplaces, stores and restaurants, athletic fields and theaters. Many of us are still going to school virtually, working from home, and shopping online, but we see hopeful signs. We are still wearing masks, washing our hands, maintaining safe distances, but more of us are taking slow, cautious, gradual steps toward "post-quarantine."

More of us are returning to church, too. We are offering a variety of online and in person experiences for worship and other activities. Slowly in person worship attendance is increasing. Easter Sunday we added an 11:00 modern-style worship service, The Gathering, to our 8:15 Foundation Service. Gradually, more groups and activities will begin returning to the church building. At the same time, we are planning to expand our outreach online. We are committed to welcoming you where you are, in ways that are best for you. Not just in worship, but in every aspect of our church life.

During the month of May, I'm planning a four-part sermon series on one of Jesus' most beloved stories, "The Parable of the Prodigal Son." It's a story about "a father who had two sons" (Luke 15:11). It is also your story and mine. Several weeks ago I attended the Christian Fellowship Sunday School class via Zoom. Our teacher asked, "Where do you see yourself in this parable?" The more I meditate on this parable the more I see myself in all of the characters. As the late devotional writer Henri Nouwen said of this parable, "All of the Gospel is there. All of my life is there. All of the lives of my friends is there" (The Return of the Prodigal Son, p.14)

When it comes to returning to church and other activities, each of us is at a different place right now. That's okay. But there is this one thing we all have in common. We all have a Father who loves us, who meets us where we are, and who welcomes us home. The most important return any of us can make is when we respond to God's gracious invitation and seek to become like God in the way we welcome others.

Joyfully Returning With You!

Pastor Denny

From the Library

I am taking a deep breath and enjoying spring to the fullest. Yesterday I weeded my flower bed and today I shopped at Patti Noggle’s Nursery and seriously resisted buying one of each beautiful flower Patti has. So now I am tied in my chair and chomping at the bit to be back outside. The only reason I am at the computer on this gorgeous day is I have a stack of new books by my chair that I really need to tell you about. I now struggle with the problem to review just a couple; as Gilda Radner is known for saying, “It’s always something!”

In our library is the always popular Irene Hannon. Not only does she write page-turning mysteries, but also insightful romances. Blackberry Beach sounds like a romance we could all enjoy today on the porch with our large iced tea, right? If you follow Christian fiction, you know that almost all the series are three or four books, but Ms. Hannon is breaking the mold making Blackberry Beach the seventh in her Hope Harbor series. Katherine Parker is a woman who has it all, but neither fame nor money has made her happy. She comes to the Oregon coast hoping to figure out what will make her happy. Her neighbor, Zach Garrett, the local coffee shop owner (does it get any better than that?), is struggling to get over his own traumatic loss. Neither has romance on their minds, but when they are recruited to volunteer in a rehab home for foster children, sparks begin to fly. Reviewers have said this is a down to earth romance with plausible people and a sub plot that adds to the overall story. See what you think!

New to our library is mystery writer Elizabeth Goddard. Present Danger is the first book in the Rocky Mountain Courage series. Former FBI Special Agent and now Detective, Jack Tanner is in Montana during a search and rescue mission, when he finds a body in the national forest. He is determined to find the killer, but that will mean working with former girlfriend, Terra Connors, who is a US Forest Service Special Agent. The victim is tied to a powerful and menacing trafficker of archaeological artifacts and this could be an extremely dangerous case. But Jack is determined to find the killer and protect Terra no matter what. Both come to this case wounded by the past and carrying personal baggage, but can they live to solve the case and maybe trust each other again? I will warn you; many reviewers have mentioned late night finishes. After you check out this author, let me know if I should order book two due out in November.

Lastly, I hope to see you in the library—SOON. If you would like an appointment to pick up books, call Pam or Donna for that.

Praying Follower

One Thousand Prayers/National Day of Prayer

Our “One Thousand Prayers” challenge kicked off on Good Friday, April 2 with the goal of collectively praying for one thousand places or more in Mechanicsburg over the entire month. By mid-April, First Church had prayed for over 500 places in Mechanicsburg! We prayed for homes, apartments, local businesses, Mechanicsburg and CV schools, the Mechanicsburg Fire Company, Police, first responders, parks and more! We even prayed for travelers on Route 81 and a family who was out searching for their lost dog (who was later found)! Several other local churches joined us in this prayer journey, and no doubt, by the time you read this, we will have reached our goal! Thank you for blessing our community in this way!

Your next prayer challenge is coming up on Thursday, May 6, which is our National Day of Prayer! On this day we will hold a 24-hour prayer vigil. You will be able to pray from the comfort of your home, but we ask that you please sign up for a 30-minute time slot by clicking on our Time to Sign Up link here, or by contacting Tina Eaton at adultministry@fumchurch.com.

You can pick up your prayer kit with ideas/scripture and prayer prompts when you leave worship on May 2, or if you are worshipping online with us, contact Tina Eaton to receive a kit.

Whether we face fluctuating economics, threats from abroad, unrest at home, or other troubling circumstances, our Heavenly Father is not caught unaware. Through prayer, we are able to tap into His wisdom, strength, protection, and peace. He stands ready to respond to our needs when we humbly ask for divine intervention.

Moms in Prayer

We have several First Church women engaged in praying with a Moms in Prayer group, and new women are invited to join at any time. What a blessing is it to join other mothers and grandmothers in lifting our children in prayer! If you are interested in participating, we have a group meeting on Monday evenings. This group prays for children at any age/stage of life, and all are welcome to join in at any time! Meets on Zoom from 7:30 – 8:30 pm. Contact Deb Noss as sdppp@msn.com if you would like to know more or would like the Zoom link to join this prayer group.

Weekly Prayer Letter

If you have not already done so, sign up for our weekly prayer email so that you can receive a list of praises and requests from our church family. Contact Janice Bowen at wecare@fumchurch.com to share requests and to sign up for this once-a-week list.

Upcoming Worship Series — “The Parable of the Prodigal Son”

Starting Sunday, May 2, we will begin a new, four-part sermon series on one of Jesus' most beloved stories, "The Parable of the Prodigal Son." It's a story about "a father who had two sons" (Luke 15:11). It is also your story and mine. In some cases we may ask ourselves, "Where do I see myself in this parable?" The more we meditate on this parable the more we see ourselves in all of the characters. As the late devotional writer Henri Nouwen said of this parable, "All of the Gospel is there. All of my life is there. All of the lives of my friends is there" (The Return of the Prodigal Son, p.14). We hope that you will join us for the following messages in May!:

- May 2 "The Younger Son" Luke 15:11-24
- May 9 "The Older Son" Luke 15:25-32
- May 16 "The Bystanders" Luke 15:25-32
- May 23 Pentecost Confirmation Sunday at The Gathering (11:00 a.m.)
- May 30 "Becoming the Father" Luke 15:11-32

New White Paraments

New white paraments for the altar, pulpit, and lectern have been purchased in memory of long-time member Lois Coover, who for many years prepared the communion elements for our church. Lois was a dedicated servant who paid attention to all the details of communion preparation, including the white paraments for the communion service. White paraments are also used for baptisms, weddings, funerals, and the six Sundays between Easter and Pentecost. These new white paraments will always be a visible reminder of Lois's service to First Church.

Livestream Team — New Ministry

Livestream worship is underway! This new group forming has exciting potential to reach beyond the walls of our church. Because of the higher demand for more volunteers to livestream, we are looking for more individuals to help grow our livestream team. No prior experience is needed, and training is provided. If you would like to meet the challenge of modern church and advance the kingdom into a digital era, please contact Sarah Pugh at worship@fumchurch.com.

Spotify Playlist

On the first Wednesday of each month, we will release a new monthly playlist on Spotify. Each song-- hand-picked by staff, musicians, and volunteers-- has been on our hearts, and prayed over for a holy and meaningful connection with our congregation. For Spotify users, search for the user First UMC of Mechanicsburg, and click on the playlist titled "Where Words Fail, Music Speaks". For non-Spotify users, click this link to listen to the playlist: <https://open.spotify.com/playlist/5rbHEYEfHei97cUI8rjwNJ?si=qzOB7cTVRg6iAU1L4BY2hA>

Dedicated Missionary

Missions Committee Study

The Missions Committee invites you to join us for a study based on the book, "When Helping Hurts." Poverty is much more than simply a lack of material resources, and it takes much more than donations and handouts to solve it. When Helping Hurts shows how some alleviation efforts, failing to consider the complexities of poverty, have actually (and unintentionally) done more harm than good." Michelle Schwartzmann, VIM Coordinator, will be leading this study once a month for the next five months via Zoom conferencing. All are welcome to join us! The study is free, no book required, just join in for the lesson and discussion. To receive the Zoom link or for more information, contact Lori Hoffnagle at outreach@fumchurch.com. The next session is Tuesday, May 4 at 7:00 p.m. Thanks for joining us!

The United Methodist Women Announce the Mission Priorities for 2021-2024

United Methodist Women is a bold, diverse and dynamic community of Christian women working together to grow spiritually, live out their faith and make a difference in their communities and world, especially on behalf of women, children and youth. For the 2021-2024 quadrennium, United Methodist Women will have two mission priorities: climate justice and criminalization of communities of color and mass incarceration, with particular focus on the Just Energy for All and Interrupting the School-to-Prison Pipeline campaigns. These two areas of critical, unrelenting need are areas in which United Methodist Women can have a great impact. Narrowing our focus to two areas helps us concentrate energy and resources to best do the work God calls us to do, and it allows us to go deeper into each of the issues we're engaging and develop stronger local and national partnerships in these areas. Read more about these priorities in the latest issue of the Response Magazine at <https://www.unitedmethodistwomen.org/news/united-methodist-women-mission-priorities-2020-2024>.

Extravagant Hospitality

Hospitality is a sacred duty. Speaking biblically, hospitality is treating strangers and friends alike. It is welcoming one another into our lives! We need to make sure that others are comfortable. We need to extend ourselves to help others when needed. We need to pay attention to little details. We need to communicate with others. We need to be enthusiastic. And why do we need to do all of these things? To be an example - to glorify God - to cultivate community - to reveal Christ's character! As we look forward to this beautiful month of May, where we celebrate Mother's Day and Memorial Day, let us each remember that our extravagant hospitality toward others shows the world that we are Christ's disciples!

Be a Part of the Glean Team!

This growing season, we are excited to offer the Biblical practice of gleaning in Mechanicsburg! You may already be familiar with the concept of 'gleaning,' perhaps from reading references to gleaning in the books of Leviticus and Ruth or from taking part in Project Share's opportunity to glean in Carlisle. As depicted in scripture, gleaning occurred when some of the fallen grain during harvest was intentionally left behind, including whole corners of the fields as required by Israelite law. The intention was to offer an unharvested portion of grain for others to collect in helping to feed the poor, the orphans, widows and foreigners, as a safety net and resource to provide for their needs.

We plan to glean some local crops (strawberries and corn for example) to share with our own community! If you would be interested in receiving additional information and notification when the fields are ready for gleaning (most likely in June), please contact Janice Bowen at wecare@fumchurch.com or 717-766-4611 x112 to have your name/contact information added to the FUMC 2021 ‘Glean Team’! All are welcome and encouraged to participate, this is a great family project!

To read more about gleaning in Biblical times, turn to the book of Ruth where Ruth was able to glean the fields of Boaz to sustain herself and her mother-in-law, Naomi: “And Ruth the Moabite said to Naomi, ‘Let me go to the fields and pick up the leftover grain behind anyone in whose eyes I find favor.’ Naomi said to her, ‘Go ahead, my daughter,’” (Ruth 2:2).

Zumba Gold Offered via Zoom!

New year, new you! Since March 2020, the Zumba instructor, Lisa Lynch, has been offering the Zumba Gold classes via Zoom on Mondays and Wednesdays at 10:00 a.m. If you would like to join in one of her classes or have questions, you can email her at lisaloveszumba2@gmail.com.

Congregational Care Resources

The following are suggested resources to promote your care, health and well-being during these challenging days calling us to find new ways to connect and to care for one another. Please contact Janice Bowen at wecare@fumchurch.com or 717-766-4611 x112 for more information.

- If you’ve been considering securing a ‘Medical Alert System’ for yourself or a loved one, please read on. These alert devices – often worn as a wristband, necklace, or clipped to clothing – are designed to connect with a dispatcher who can call for emergency help or contact a family member or friend, 24/7. Having such a device can bring peace of mind to those who live alone, are at risk for falling, or at risk for a medical emergency. Consumer Reports magazine researched various products, summarizing their results in a February 2021 article. (Please contact Janice for a copy of the article.)
- Contact to Care is a community-based program with the purpose of connecting people to health insurance options and medical care, addressing issues of transportation, language, housing, food, and health literacy when posing as a barrier to accessing healthcare. For more information or to make a referral, contact our Community Health Worker, Deb Weyant (717-960-4328 or dweyant@sadlerhealth.org).

Joy in the Morning - a small group invitation!

If you live with chronic pain or ongoing health challenges, we invite you to join in sharing discussion and supportive friendship with this spiritually-focused small group. We meet Monday afternoons every 3-4 weeks from 3:30-4:30. Terry Ketrow and Janice Bowen co-facilitate, drawing upon readings from the book, With the Dawn Rejoicing. For more information, contact Janice Bowen at 717-766-4611 x112 or wecare@fumchurch.com.

Notes of Thanks

Thank you to everyone at church for their cards, kind words and support they provided to us regarding my dad's passing. Thank you very much. ~Tracy Wertz and family

Thank you to everyone who sent a card or expressed words of sympathy to me in the passing of my grandmother. I am so blessed to have such a wonderfully caring and supportive church family!

~Ellen Hill

We would like to thank our amazing church family from the bottom of our hearts for all the love, notes, cards, support and prayers as we dealt with the loss of our father and grandfather. We are so very blessed by such a wonderful, thoughtful and kind church family. We felt all your thoughts and prayers and it brought us so much comfort and peace. Love you all!!! Blessings, Dawn, Jason, Kylee and Kendal Fisher

I want to thank everyone that contributed to the "Reflections for Lent" devotional. Reading the first day, I found it so inspirational and meaningful. Then the second, third, and fourth day until the final day. They all had something to offer. I was very moved and, must admit, very impressed. I plan to keep it and reread it. So again, you all were outstanding. You made God proud. Love, Marilyn Seig
