Opening Doors with Christ, One Another and Our Neighbors

“It Wouldn’t Be Christmas Without...”

How would you complete that sentence?

For me, there are several things that come to mind....

It wouldn't be Christmas for me without the decorations. Every year we pull out boxes from the closet and decorate our home. There's one box that's filled with ornaments that we've collected over the years. Some of them are gifts from family members and friends. Others we've gotten from places we've visited. A few of the most precious ornaments are ones our daughters made by hand when they were very small. Each decoration has special memories attached to it. Decorating is a special part of this season.

It wouldn't be Christmas for me without certain kinds of Christmas food. One of our family traditions is getting together and bake cookies. We have special cookies that we make every year. And then, our youth have a Christmas cookie walk and we get to sample a couple of boxes of cookies made by many of you in our church family. Then of course, there are other special foods that, for me, it just wouldn't be Christmas without.

It wouldn't be Christmas for me without the Christmas worship services. I have to confess that last year, when COVID-19 cases were spiking and we had to make the difficult decision to go on-line with our services, I wasn't sure Christmas would feel quite the same. But thanks to the creative efforts of our gifted worship teams, we still had special worship experiences online. This year, I'm excited we can celebrate Advent and Christmas in person as well as online. It's not Christmas for me until we get to Christmas Eve and we sing, “Silent Night,” and we see the sanctuary all aglow in candlelight. This is my seventh year celebrating Christmas Eve with you, and I never get tired of it!

I'm sure there are many other things you could add. It wouldn't be Christmas without certain kinds of things in our lives. It's what makes Christmas so special. Of course, it wouldn't be Christmas without the Christmas story. The Christmas story is the story of Mary and Joseph and the baby born in a manger. It's also the story of others whose lives were powerfully touched by the Holy Spirit at the Savior's birth. Though it's the old, old story, we need to hear it in fresh and new ways.

As I prepare to celebrate Christmas this year, I've been praying a prayer from a favorite Christmas carol. I hope you will pray it with me:

*O holy Child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray.
Cast out our sin and enter in,
Be born in us today.*

“O Little Town of Bethlehem”

My hope and prayer, as we celebrate the holy Child of Bethlehem, is that we won't just be remembering an event that happened 2000 years ago, but that he'll be born in us today.

May the peace of Christ dwell in your heart!

From the Library

I don't know about you, but on this 65^o day in November I am not thinking about Christmas! But of course, with the mail the way it is, I should probably send out my Christmas cards this week. With the uncertainty at the grocery store over prices and supply, I should probably bake my cookies this week. And with the uncertainty of the supply of certain gifts and the debate whether the mailman can bring it on time, I should probably shop! And I should get this newsletter written, because I am uncertain if I will have time to write it later between all my other tasks. BUT with all the uncertainty in the world, I know for sure Christmas will come and the message of Christ's birth and his life of love will be the same as it has been for thousands of years. And you can be sure of one more tiny little thing, you can get some really good Christian books from our library this month and every month. Let me tell you about a few new ones.

Melody Carlson always write a Christmas novella and this year it has arrived like clockwork once again. Christmas in the Alps is set in present-day France. Simone Winthrop discovers a tantalizing letter from her great-grandmother that suggests Simone is an heir to a family treasure. No mention of what the treasure is or where it might be, Simone still jets off to France to see if there is a treasure. On that long flight she meets the charming Kyle Larsson who is on his way to become an apprentice clockmaker. I know you will be as surprised as I was to discover that Simone's family owns a clock factory, where of course, the two meet once again. Enjoy this sweet romance while dreaming of the French Alps. It will be a quick read between batches of cookies!

While usually December's newsletter is as light and frothy as your hot chocolate, I can't stop myself from mentioning that this week I received four mystery books that I know you will want to read even if you must put off shopping or letter writing. I don't have room to review each of them so I will only mention two by a new author to our library, Kathy Harris. Deadly Commitment and Deadly Connection are currently on the shelf and ready for you. The Deadly Secrets series is set in Nashville, and it is filled not only with southern charm, but a lot of big city twists. Danielle Kemp has the feeling that someone is watching her. Could the homeless man outside her building be stalking her? Then she discovers some disturbing facts about her fiancé that seem more threatening than being stalked. Switch to black coffee so you finish this all-in-one evening. In Deadly Connections, Hannah Cassidy fends off a would-be abductor, only to see him grab another woman in the same parking lot. Fortunately, TBI Special Agent Jake Matheson is just parking in the lot when he hears screaming. Together the two of them try to figure out the connection between Cassidy and her abductor before he finds her again. Reviews have been good for this series, and it mentions that the heroines are feisty gals who also have a sense of humor. I hope you enjoy this new author.

Stop by the library before early service or during the Sunday School hour to check out our many Christmas books or the latest in Christian fiction. One of our dedicated volunteers will help you find just the right book!

Merry Christmas,
~ Pam and Donna

Extravagant Hospitality

Nametags are back! What better way to show hospitality to others than to wear our nametags at church? Few people know everyone in the church and many of us likely have trouble remembering names. Nametags allow us to fellowship more personally with others by calling them by name. Nametags invite conversation! Nametags save embarrassment ~ haven't most of us called someone by the wrong name, only to realize it later? Wearing our nametags makes guests feel more comfortable, as guests should never be the ones who have to ask our names. Asking a guest their name conveys to them that we want to know them! Wearing our nametags ~ a seemingly SMALL gesture ~ is actually a HUGE way to promote fellowship with one another and to welcome guests. Please make every effort to wear your nametag at church. If you do not have one or have misplaced yours, please contact Tina Eaton at adultministry@fumchurch.com and she will provide one for you!

The next Clothing Closet will be held on Saturday, December 11. They are asking for donations of winter jackets or new socks and underwear for the upcoming winter season. Questions, contact Vanessa Storlie at trinityburgoutreach@gmail.com.

Widows/Widowers Fellowship

The widows/widowers fellowship will dine at Leeds on Tuesday, December 14 at 11:30 a.m. If you plan on attending and/or would like to carpool (leaving the church no later than 11:00 a.m. that day), please contact Bonnie Guyer at 717-766-0145.

Endowment Fund— “The Gift That Keeps Growing”

I recently found in our Endowment Files a card that was included in a December church bulletin from many years ago. The card revealed a lot of truths and I thought it would be something for each of us to think about during this holiday season.

“But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven ... For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” (Matthew 6:20-21)

Can you name three Christmas presents that you received last year? If not, you are not alone. The gift giving season is upon us. This Christmas, why not give a gift that will continue to give will into the future! Gifts to the First Church Endowment Fund last forever. That’s because contributions to it are never spent. They are invested to generate income for future use. You can support the Endowment Fund with a cash contribution now, or planned gift (e.g., bequest in a will) to be made in the future. All gifts are tax deductible.”

Any member of the Endowment Committee are happy to answer any questions concerning the Endowment Fund. Committee members include: Bob Wertz, Sr., Pastor Denny, Ken Rapp, Katie Hammaker, Barry Eaton, Judi Buddenbaum, Rick Herring, Mark Rouch, Pam Murdoch, Patti Vogl.

Women’s Ministry & SCRIP!

Need a gift idea? Use the SCRIP gift card program and benefit the FUMC Women’s Ministry at the same time! For the months of December and January, proceeds from specific gift card purchases will benefit the 2022 Women’s Retreat! The gift cards include Applebee’s, Carrabba’s/Outback Steakhouse, Cracker Barrel, Dunkin Donuts, Olive Garden/Red Lobster/Longhorn Steakhouse, Panera Bread, Red Robin, Subway, Texas Roadhouse, and TGI Friday’s. The SCRIP box and order forms are located near the end of the hallway (to the right) of the main building entrance. Any questions, contact Patti Herring at familyzeke@verizon.net.

to the family and friends of Morris Barr, who passed away on November 4

A note of thanks...

Just a note of thanks to everyone who provided us with food, sent cards, came to visit and prayed for us. I am finally coming to the end of this long journey and it is so good to be getting back to normal.

Dear First Church Family, We want to thank you for the flowers, cards, prayers, and phone calls during my ankle surgery and recent hospitalization. Our church family is awesome.
