“Who Are You, Lord?”
Acts 9:1-20

8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth. (Acts 1:8)

1. The voice of God comes to each of us and all of us.

Saul’s Before and After Story:

From breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord (Acts 9:1)

To immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying,

“He is the Son of God.” (Acts 9:20-21)

“I reckon the Lord knew that the only way to make a Christian out of that one was to knock him off his horse.” (Flannery O’Connor)

We have all been on the wrong path.

What has been your blinding light?

“I once was lost, but now am found; was blind, but now I see.”

(John Newton)

2. Our task is to remain open to what God is doing in and around us.

Ananias's Before and After Story:

From "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem; 14 and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who invoke your name." (Acts 9:13-14)

To "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." (Acts 9:17)

"The roads to Christian faith are as varied as the people who profess it."

(William Muehl)
