Opening Doors with Christ, One Another and Our Neighbors

"Join the Great Procession"

On Christmas Eve the church of my childhood only had one service. 500-600 people would crowd into the large sanctuary of Grace Church, Carlisle. The service began with a long processional. Every choir in the church participated. Since I was in the children's choir, then the youth choir, then the chancel choir, I was part of this processional from the time I was a small child until I went off to college.

My heart would pound with excitement every year as we entered through the back doors of the sanctuary. I would peer down the center aisle into that magnificent sanctuary, a mysterious mix of darkness and candle-light. I remember the familiar faces of my grandparents amid a sea of strangers. They sat along the aisle near the back and whispered my name as I walked past. And, I remember the sound of the great pipe organ, and the incredible mix of voices lifted up in song all around me. Every year, the processional hymn was the same: "Angels from the Realms of Glory." Again and again, the joyous refrain rang out, "Come and worship, come and worship, worship Christ the newborn King."

When James Montgomery penned these words nearly two hundred years ago, he could not have imagined that we would be singing them today. Montgomery was a newspaper editor in Sheffield, England. Originally "Angels from the Realms of Glory" appeared as a poem in the Christmas Eve edition of his paper in 1816. A few years later, someone set the words to music. In 1830 the carol first appeared in the Methodist Hymnal.

Montgomery reminds us, as we "worship Christ the newborn King," that we are part of a magnificent processional that began in Bethlehem long ago when the angels who "sang creation's story, now proclaim Messiah's birth." Soon the shepherds, who "behold the infant light," join in. The sages who "have seen his natal star" get in line, too. As do the "saints before the altar bending." All who worship Jesus are marching together toward that day when "suddenly, the Lord, descending, in his temple shall appear."

Our December calendar at First Church is filled with opportunities to worship Christ. In your devotional time each day, and on Sunday mornings in Advent and Christmas Eve Candlelight Services, I encourage you to join the procession. Proclaim his birth. Behold his light. Kneel in adoration. Embrace the hope. "Come and worship, come and worship, worship Christ the newborn King!"

Joining You in the Great Procession!

Take the Challenge!

Finish 2018 strong by participating in the Be One, Make One Discipleship Challenge! If you haven't already done so, simply visit the Welcome Center display, pick up a Common English Bible with a reading plan and begin reading! Then come on Sundays to worship God and learn from the sermons, which dig deeper into the daily readings.

Winter Studies

Looking for a new way to grow, learn and get into God's Word this winter? Then consider participating in any of the following:

- Advent Study: The Gift of the Nutcracker
Draw closer to Christ during Advent through this endearing Christmas classic! This 4-week study, based on the popular story of the Nutcracker, will be held in the church multipurpose room from 9:30 – 10:30 am on Sunday mornings from December 2 through December 23. Each session will include a short video and discussion in small table groups. There is no need to register, and you can attend one or all of the sessions. Visit the Welcome Center display for more information, or contact Tina Eaton at 717-766-4611 or email adultministry@fumchurch.com.
- Regular Sunday School classes meet Sunday mornings from 9:30 – 10:30 am. Look in the bulletin for more details regarding the class choices.
- Wednesday Bible Studies with both Pastor Denny and Pastor John will resume in the new year, so keep your eye out for more details in the bulletin!
- Thursday Bible Study and Sunday Men's Bible Study will also resume in the new year, so look in the bulletin for more details in December/January!

Library

As I began to write this newsletter, I realized I skipped over our big news last month. The library hit its twentieth anniversary last month. And before you remind me, yes, the church had a small reference library before Pam, Fran (Davis) and I started adding fiction. I'm just counting the years since we reinvented the library. We have written about 480 newsletter articles and decorated the window in the hall at least that many times. And we continue to do it with the help of some very dedicated volunteers who have generously given their time. Why you ask? Well, we all love books, and we want you to have the opportunity to have the best of Christian fiction. Yes, some of this is available at the public library, but we have some features they don't have. Small wait times, assurance that each series will be complete, and a staff that is knowledgeable and can help find just the right book for you. You can let your teen borrow our books without worry about content. That doesn't mean our literature is dull and boring. Most Christian writers tackle the hard issues with compassion and insight. So, if you haven't browsed our shelves in the last twenty years, now might be a good time to start!

Now that we are done with the back patting, on to the important part: a review of some new books. I know many of you have been waiting for Susan May Warren to write the sixth book in the Montana Rescue Series and it has arrived. Wait for Me is on the shelf ready to be checked out. Sadly, this is the last book of the series, but reviewers have said that Ms. Warren has wrapped up the series with "a shocking but satisfying ending, tying up all the loose ends". I won't tell you the plot, but there is lots of suspense and romance. What could be better? If you haven't read this series, now is the time with all six books available. Merry Christmas from the library!

If your Christmas stocking isn't full enough, let me deliver one more present. Denise Hunter's On Magnolia Lane just arrived. This is the third romance (of four) in the Blue Ridge Sunrise Series. I have to admit I rarely read romance novels, but Ms. Hunter's novels are so down to earth and character driven, I dive right in with everyone else. Pastor Jack McReady has been Daisy Pendelton's counselor for two years. Now he would like to give up that job and start dating her. Unbeknownst to him, his best friend has put his profile on a dating app that Daisy has been checking out. Since Jack is only identified by his initials, Daisy doesn't know she is interested in her counselor. Will these two overcome the stumbling blocks before them and find true love? Guess you'll be up late finding out.

You may have noticed the library has had a large group of Amish fiction donated to us. We have worked hard to flesh out each series and hope you will enjoy this bounty.

We also have some new Christmas fiction and hope you have a few spare moments to sneak in some uplifting fiction for the season.

See you in the library!!!

Praying Follower

Praying Together

As disciples of Jesus, we value faithfully listening in order to discern God's will and respond to God in prayer every day. Here are a couple of great opportunities being offered to help you engage in prayer this winter:

- Advent Devotions - Looking for a devotion to enhance your daily prayer time during Advent? Stop by the Welcome Center display and pick up a special Advent devotion booklet, based on the writings of Henri Nouwen, today!
- Moms in Prayer – This small group of mothers and grandmothers meets at First Church every Monday (that Mechanicsburg schools are in session) in the evening from 7:00 – 8:00 pm in the Prayer Room (2nd floor elevator landing). No prayer experience is required. Your child can be any age/any stage of life. And what is prayed in the group stays in the group, so don't worry – your prayer requests will remain private within the group. For more details, please contact Tina Eaton at 717-766-4611 or email adultministry@fumchurch.com.

Feminine Hygiene Kits

The Deborah Circle is sponsoring a sewing day to make feminine hygiene kits for Mission Central. If you have not heard about these kits, it is an eye opener to know what women and girls do in poor countries to take care of their menstrual period. Sometimes they use dirt or weeds or worse during this time and if nothing works, they must stay home from school or work one week a month. This adds to their poverty and lack of education. To get a full look at this project go to Mission Central and look under ways to contribute and there is a larger explanation. You can help with this project even if you don't sew. There is a lot of cutting out of materials and if you do sew simple sewing. A serger sewing machine is very helpful but not mandatory.

We will start at 8:30 on January 12th (January 19th if we need a snow day) and sew until the fabric is used up, we are done, or you just need to leave. Pack a lunch if you care too. Coffee and muffins will be provided in the morning. Deborah Circle is providing the first $100. worth of fabric including the all-important water proof fabric needed. If you can bring flannel or cottons for the project great. All fabrics must be washed in unscented soap and no fabric softener used. If the fabric is preshrunk and the kit made properly the kit will last 3 years. The fabric dos and don'ts are listed on the Mission Central website (and there are several). If you can bring your sewing machine-great. Other sewing supplies such as sharp scissors, rotor cutters, quilting rulers, and cutting mats will be needed. Dark thread is always used. If you have any questions, call me, Donna Nichols at 717-249-9477. The lady at Mission Central who went to Africa and distributed these kits said it was just like Christmas- the girls and women were so happy to have the kits.

Relationship Builder

Senior Fellowship – Tuesday, December 18th 1-3 p.m.

All senior members are invited to enjoy a casual time of fellowship and light refreshments in the 'Hardwood Café' just beyond the church library. Mechanicsburg resident, John Maietta, will present "Joy to the World! The Stories Behind Our Favorite Christmas Carols." We'll hear the colorful stories behind some of our favorite Christmas carols. You'll learn who King Wenceslas really was....how a partridge got into a pear tree....why a Pennsylvania pastor immortalized the visit of the Three Kings to the baby Jesus....and how a snowy, starry night in an Austrian village inspired a beloved song of Christmas joy and peace.

Please contact Janice Bowen (717-766-4611 x112 or wecare@fumchurch.com) for more information.

Christmas Caroling – Sunday, December 16th – 5:30 p.m.

Calling Christmas Carolers of all ages! We invite you to meet at the 'Hardwood Café' (round table area under the balcony of the sanctuary) to join a group for sharing Christmas carols with members of our homebound community! No singing experience or talent necessary, just a desire to have fun and spread Christmas cheer! Treat yourself to cookies and hot cocoa around the tree back at the church upon your return.

Questions? Janice Bowen – 717-766-4611 x112 or wecare@fumchurch.com

Remember Those at Home

A list of First Church member at home and their addresses can be found at the Welcome Desk in the main lobby. Send a little cheer to those we don't get to see as often as we would like.

Broad Street Update

Thanks to everyone who supported the Broad Street Elementary Community Dinner on Thursday, September 20th. It was a great success with over 350 in attendance! Mark your calendars for Thursday, March 7. First Church will be providing the barbeque for the spring meal. The staff and families at Broad Street appreciate your support of this community event!

Day of Pampering February 23, 2019

Please be in prayer for this ministry as our planning continues.

Not everyone who has helped in the past can return. Currently we are in need of several hair stylists, 4-5 massage therapists and volunteers. If you know of someone with these talents who might be interested in helping, please provide their contact information to Karin McHale at karinmch@comcast or 717-379-8329. If you would like to volunteer in some way, feel free to contact me. There are many ways to help including decorating, painting nails, doing hand waxing, helping in the parking lot, moving furniture or equipment, washing dishes and so much more.

Each year we learn of some way Day of Pampering has touched the lives of the women who attend. Some love the worship and the Blessing of the Hands. Others enjoy the time to lunch leisurely and share conversation with new friends. Each woman who attends Day of Pampering has been invited and received a confirmed registration. Do you know a woman caregiver in need of a respite from the responsibilities of caregiving? Just share their name and email address with Karin McHale so they can be invited to Day of Pampering.

I don't know what items will be requested yet, but if it is like last year, there will be some larger items. Those items might be chosen by a Sunday School class or 2-3 individuals can go together and split the cost. Look for the tree mid-November and Happy Shopping. Endowment Support: A Lasting Gift to First Church

For many, Advent is a joyous season as we prepare for the Christmas holiday and anticipate the coming of our blessed Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Christmas is also a popular time to give and receive gifts. This Christmas, why not give a meaningful, lasting gift that will continue to give well into the future?

Gifts to the First Church Endowment Fund last forever. That's because contributions to it are never spent. They are invested to generate income for future use.

Endowment support can be provided in many ways.

- Cash contributions
- Gift annuities
- Bequest in a will
- Life insurance policy (First Church as beneficiary)
- Contributions in Memory or Honor of Loved Ones

If you would like to learn more about the Endowment Fund, please call or approach any member of the Endowment Committee or either of First Church's pastors.

Endowment Grants Awarded in 2018

For the second year, the Endowment Fund of First United Methodist Church was in the very favorable position of being able to distribute income.

The Endowment Fund generated enough income in 2017 to be safely withdrawn from the fund and reinvested into the church. The distribution amounts were calculated using the Total Return Policy, as previously adopted by First Church.

Distributions were given in the form of grants to fund various mission-related projects in 2018:

Worship Arts Team - $2,500 for the creation of this team, focused on creating an environment at First Church that engages people in worship in a way that allows them to uniquely experience the presence of God in a corporate worship setting. The team will evaluate the function, aesthetics and design of our worship space and prepare a plan for enhancements to improve our worship experience.

Worship Arts Clubs – A $1,500 grant to fund the addition of Worship Arts Clubs to the 2018-19 Wonderful Wednesday family fellowship program. Students can choose from three clubs featuring music, dance and drama. The clubs provide alternative expressions of worship to help children praise in a way that they feel most connected to God.

Stained Glass Windows - $3,700 was added to the church's stained glass restoration fund in accordance with the donor's wishes.

POINSETTIAS will be placed in the Sanctuary on December 16 and 23. You have the option of purchasing a poinsettia for $7.50 or giving a monetary gift in memory/honor of your loved one. Gift donations will be forwarded to the United Methodist Committee on Relief.

Please complete the form indicating the number of “plants” or “gifts” and place it in the offering plate or send it to Kristin Brown in the church office by December 6.

Plants may be taken after any Christmas Eve Service that you attend. If you order a poinsettia, please be sure to pick it up. Plants not claimed by December 31 will be disposed of.

If you are not planning on taking your poinsettia please consider a monetary gift instead.

Church News and Notes

Thank you...

Dear Frist Church Family,

Thank you so very much for the prayers and support through the surgery and as I move through the recovery and physical therapy.

Church and I have felt the many prayers and enjoyed the meals prepared by many of you. Again, thank you!

In His love,

Chuck & Patti Loomis

I want to thank everyone who helped me move into my new apartment that I love very much. I want to thank everyone for the food and the flowers. I want to thank John and Jeannette Behel for the microwave. I am very thankful for my church family.....you are so important to me. Again, thank you all very much, I love you all. ~ Annabelle Elder

As the year comes to a close, I would like to take a moment to thank all who have prayed and expressed concern for me and Deb over the last year and a half. I was diagnosed with Prostate cancer February 2017. The radiation therapy that occurred last year coupled with the hormone therapy that finished this February went very well. Through the time of my treatments I was at peace knowing that I was in God's arms, as well as, the loving arms of the First Church family. I don't want to forget to thank those whose knitted my prayer blanket. It was often on my lap at work – a tangible reminder that I was being surrounded by love and prayers. My latest test results show that all levels have returned to normal and I can go back to a regular follow-up schedule. Praise God!

When I first received my diagnosis, I wasn't sure whether to keep this to myself or share with the church. I know this kind of thing is a personal choice for each person. For me, I can only say again thank you to the First Church family. This for me is an example where God has worked things for good. I have been overwhelmed with love and support and developed friendships with many people who shared their stories, their lives with me. What a precious gift!

Your Brother in Christ – Steve Noss
