JANUARY-FEBRUARY 2016

First United Methodist Church of Mechanicsburg

From the Pastor

"Love Anyway and Love Everyone"

"There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear..." (I John 4:18a)

The other day as I waited at a stop light in downtown Mechanicsburg, I saw a little girl with a backpack just like the one our 4-year-old granddaughter Chloe has. It's bright purple, with the characters Elsa and Anna on it, from the popular Disney animated movie, "Frozen." As she walked by my stopped car, holding her mother's hand, I noticed that her mom was carrying an infant, about the age of our new granddaughter, Lilah. Mom was wearing a long, ankle length dress. Her head was covered with a bright red hijab scarf, a sign of her Islamic faith. From under the scarf, she was smiling, obviously enjoying her little ones.

As the light changed, and I pulled away, I thought about how grateful I am to live in a country that values religious freedom. I said a prayer that this young mom and her children, like our own family, would enjoy health and happiness. Too many people these days react with fear and even hostility toward those who are different from them.

Following the recent terrorist attacks by Muslim extremists in Paris and San Bernardino, I heard a report on the radio about the bullying of Muslim women wearing hijabs. It's happening in cities around the country. One of the women said that a man pulled up alongside of her car at a traffic light. He rolled down his window and yelled, "Terrorist! Go home!" Another said that her husband doesn't want her to wear her hijab in public anymore. He is afraid for her safety. A life-long Muslim, she is heartbroken at the thought of denying her faith.

There are plenty of reasons to be afraid these days. ISIS and homegrown terrorism are among them. However, just because a few extreme members of a religious or ethnic group commit senseless acts of violence, it does not mean that we ought to be suspicious of everyone that is different from us. In this culture of fear and mistrust, we who represent Jesus in our community are called to bear witness to his way of love.

In his three New Testament letters, the apostle John calls us repeatedly to love one another. Then he explains, "There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear..." (I John 4:18a) According to John, the opposite of love is not hate; it's fear. Fear puts up barriers. Love tears them down. Fear looks at others with suspicion. Love looks at others as God's children. Fear hides and keeps a distance. Love comes out in the open and builds relationships with others.

As we move into 2016, I am grateful to be part of a loving Christian community at First Church. My prayer is that love will be palpable in our life together and in the ways we reach out to all of our neighbors. Whatever the New

Finance

Through November 30, 2015
92% of year
General Fund
2015 budget	$ 875,000
Expected income	$ 805,000
Actual income	$ 770,387 (88% of budget)
Deficit	$ 34,613
Actual expenses	$ 718,571
Building Fund	$ 8,200
Legacy Campaign	$ 3,775

On December 15 the Administrative Board approved a 2016 budget of $890,000. This is an increase over the current year and is possible because of the great success of the New Consecration Sunday program we undertook this year. We appreciate those who completed an estimate of giving card and who pledged increased amounts.

The complete 2016 budget will be included in the next newsletter.

Endowment

There's Still Time to Support the Endowment Fund in 2015

It's not too late to support the First Church Endowment Fund this year!

The Endowment Fund has experienced extraordinary growth in the past year, nearly tripling in value. Late last year, the fund topped $100,000 for the first time. As of December 10, the balance was $274,205.

Growth is due in large part to a gift from the estate of Harry Hamsher and his wife, Norma, as well as estate gifts from Janet Miller and Paul Cramer. The fund also grew from the generous cash donations of several First Church members throughout the year.

Gifts to the Endowment Fund last forever. That's because contributions to it are never spent. They are invested to generate income for future use.

You can support the Endowment Fund with a cash contribution now, or a planned gift (e.g., bequest in a will) to be made in the future. All gifts are tax deductible.

If you would like more information on the Endowment Fund, please call or approach Katie Hammaker, Endowment Committee Chairperson, or either of First Church's pastors.

Music

Ringling In the News

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who attended our Christmas Bell Concert at the Fredrickson Library. We also appreciate your support for the past few months by eating at the various restaurants that have hosted us and buying sandwiches and pies. Without your help we would not be able to attend the conferences and festivals that we do, which not only help us improve our ringing techniques, but keep us enthusiastic as we continue ringing together. Kathie is starting her 25th year as our bell choir director!

In January, the choirs begin rehearsals for three different events. The Vancouver Choir begins rehearsals for the International Symposium to be held in July. In addition, two groups of ringers will be preparing music for one day Festival events; Lancaster in March and another in State College in April. Of course, our two choirs will continue to play in church each month.

We have some additional fundraisers for the New Year. Join us “eating out” Tuesday, January 19th at Friendlys in Camp Hill, and Tuesday, February 23rd at Hosses in Mechanicsburg. You can eat anytime from 11am – 9 pm those days. Watch your bulletin for a voucher to take with you so that we receive credit for your visit. For those of you that enjoy our pies, we will be making them again (cherry and apple) on February 13th. Orders will be taken starting in January.

Reflections for Lent—2016

If you have been studying “A Disciple’s Path” with your Sunday School class or small group you have encountered the SOAP (also called SOAPY) method of scripture study and prayer. In 2016 we are going to apply this method to our annual “Reflections for Lent” devotional booklet. SOAP stands for Scripture, Observation, Application and Prayer (in which you Yield to God’s will). Here’s how it works:

- Scripture: Write down the scripture you have chosen to reflect on for the day.
- Observation: Write down what you believe the scripture says to you. What has the Lord impressed on you as a lesson?
- Application: Reflect on your observation and write what God has revealed to you personally about how this lesson applies to your life.
- Prayer: Write a prayer to God concerning this lesson and your life. Also write what you must yield in your life for this lesson to take hold in your life.

Here is an example (taken from “A Disciple’s Path” workbook):

- Scripture: Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light, but when it is bad, your body is full of darkness. Luke 11:34
- Observation: What I read determines the kind of light or darkness which will fill my mind and my body. I become what I think.
- Application: As I read this I became more aware that starting each day with scripture is important for me. If I begin my day with reading God’s Word then my life will be changed to become more like Jesus as the readings shape my heart. If I miss a morning I feel a loss and a small amount of darkness comes into my life. The Word of God brings light into my life and makes me more useful to God.
- Prayer: Father, thank you for the gift of your Word. Thank you also for the light it brings into my mind and body as you teach and encourage me each day. I will not skip a day of this discipline because I need your light in my heart, mind and body. Amen.

We welcome your participation with gratitude! Your reflection will strengthen your faith and the faith of others, plus it will bring glory to God! Please contact Tina Eaton at adultministry@fumchurch.com or call her at 766-4611 to sign up. You can also write your name on the sign-up sheet located in the main lobby on the Adult Ministries table.

The format of your personal devotional should be:

1. Brief Title
2. Scripture – Just a short passage
3. Observation – 2 or 3 sentences
4. Application – about 5 sentences
5. Prayer – 2 or 3 sentences
6. Your Name

Reflections are due by Sunday, January 10, 2016. Please email your document to adultministry@fumchurch.com. If you do not have access to email, please place a hard copy of your reflection in an envelope marked “Reflection for Lent” and place it in Tina Eaton’s mailbox.

Youth

What's happening in the youth department?

Well the holidays are over, the tree is away and we have started a new year. The youth department would like to thank you for all the support you have given us this year. December was a busy month and we want to thank you for support at the 4th Annual Cookie Walk as well as supporting us by visiting The Starlight Diner at Night in Bethlehem. These events would not be a success without you. All monies raised at those events will go to our summer mission trip.

The youth year starts out with our weekend trip to Altoona to attend Zeteo. Zeteo is a three day event put on by Salt n Light Youth Ministry. Zeteo is Greek for “to seek in order to find”. During the weekend students and adults participate in workshops, watch dramas and worship. If you'd like more information ask a youth who's been there. It has become a favorite of youth and adults alike.

February brings us to our battleball tournament at Messiah college. In the fall we were able battle our way to second place. This year were going for first. If you'd like more information check out the church website.

Library

As I write this library article, the Christmas rush is still in full swing. But by the time you read this, all the advertising headlines will begin with "new" and sometimes "new and improved". That could be said of our library as we are always adding new books. For some of you that would describe the library in a nutshell. I am constantly surprised by the number of people that don't know about the library or what a treasure it is in our church. Not only do we offer the latest and best in Christian fiction, but our library also offers a comfy room to read or browse the shelves. Someone is on duty to look things up in the computer or help you find the genre for which you are looking. We offer extended checkouts and grace periods if you are late returning your book. You can also turn your teenager loose in the library as quality romance, mystery and other genres are available without explicit language or settings.

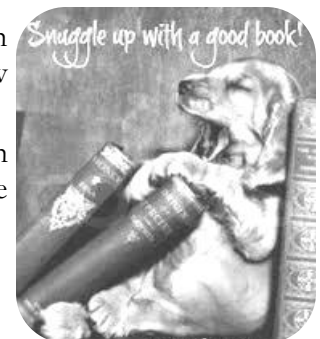

The new author in the library is Lis Wiehl whom you might recognize as a Fox News channel consultant. I have tried to read Ms. Wiehl's books for several years, but was put off by some of the super natural elements to her books. Her new Mia Quinn Trilogy mysteries have renewed my interest in her. Mia Quinn works in the prosecutors' office, is a single mother and a widow of a murder victim. Interwoven in the mysteries are situations that many families face every day. Just trying to hold down a high pressure job and keep the family as a priority will resound with most working parents. In the first book, A Matter of Trust, Mia is on the phone with a colleague when the woman is shot and dies while Mia listens in horror. Reluctantly Mia teams up with police detective Charlie Coulson to solve the murder. Second in the trilogy is Deadly Business which is packed from page one to the very end with action and suspense. If her work prosecuting violent criminals is not enough, Detective Coulson comes to Mia with evidence that her husband's recent death might not have been an accident. But will finding out the truth put her whole family in danger? Lethal Beauty concludes the series. The story is gritty with the death of a prostitute, the discovery of a Chinese human trafficking ring and the terrible discovery that Mia's own son is dabbling in steroid drugs. It will keep you reading well past your bed time. The extra plus is maybe Detective Coulson wants to move beyond friend status? Is Mia ready for all of this chaos? I will let you find out.

This is just one of the fine new series on the shelf. If you prefer Amish literature or romances or some other genre, come in and let us show you how to find your favorites.

Thanks to everyone that supported our mini book sale in November with either donations or purchases. Watch for new books purchased from the profits in 2016.

See you in the library.

Men's Ministry

Save the Date

Men's Retreat for 2016 is scheduled for March 4-6th and we'd like for you to put it on your calendar. Consider joining us at Wesley Forest this year for what is always a valuable time away. The beautiful camp is the perfect place to seek rest and build relationships with the men you see in church each Sunday, but haven't really gotten to know. There is so much more to gain in our faith walk by getting away for these 2 nights and I encourage each man who's reading this to seek more than what you have right now.

Reverend Ed Zeiders will be our facilitator and we are excited to welcome new men to this annual tradition that enjoys a rich history at FUMC. Be a part of it and you'll be glad you were. Contact John Bowen with any questions at 796-0809 or bowenhome720@gmail.com.

Facilities

A new year is upon us and that means new opportunities to create a warm, welcoming environment at First Church in Mechanicsburg. We did some great things around the facility in 2015, like completing our stair tread replacement project, restoring the lower level of the building after the sewage pump malfunction late in 2014, replacing the natural gas service line into the building, modernizing three restrooms in the Education wing, making major repairs to the dishwasher, replacing the reach-in refrigerator, painting and reorganizing all of the kitchen cabinets, relamping the sanctuary and the tower hallway, repairing four minor roof leaks, supporting two Eagle Scout service projects, and installing Nightlock Lockdowns on all of the classroom doors used by Little Friends Nursery School during the week. Plus, we purchased a home at 524 Colony Road in Camp Hill in the spring of 2015 to serve as our new church parsonage, and readied it for Pastor Keller and Betsy's arrival as they began their ministry with us on July 1st. God has been very good to us, and I thank you for the support you have provided in helping us meet these challenges.

Unfortunately, there isn't any time to sit back and rest on our laurels because keeping this awesome place operational has us scurrying around here every single day. We are still in the process of completing wall repairs on the Frederick Street side of the balcony of the Sunday School auditorium, and then that area will receive a fresh coat of paint. We are exploring options for making the small restroom next to the Guyer Sunday School Class area more "senior friendly", and then that room will also be painted. I'm still looking for a safe way to change out the two spotlights above the choir loft. I need to get busy in finalizing a requirements statement that will lead to the replacement of the control system for our rooftop HVAC units, with the potential also for replacing the pneumatic controls for our boiler system. We are hoping to undertake a paving, resealing, and restriping project in our parking lots once we are confident that we have seen the last of the ground settling in the east lot. We are looking to replace our video surveillance system to improve our security measures around the building. We are also looking to make some video upgrades in the sanctuary and Sunday School auditorium to enhance our worship services. Our winter has been mild so far, but I imagine we'll be seeing some typical winter weather soon that will present its own set of challenges, particularly with regard to our roof. Hopefully we're in good shape facility-wise at the parsonage, but that could quickly change as well.

We really appreciate your ongoing prayers and support. We strive to be faithful stewards of God's great resource here in Mechanicsburg as we continue to spread God's good news to those around us. Thank you.

Building Use

As activities within the church start to pick up it becomes even more important to submit building use forms in a timely manner. This will ensure you have the space needed for your activity and allow for adjustments if space is already booked. Building use forms can be found at the end of the first floor office hallway before entering the narthex. Submit forms to the church office.

Also, if your activity is offsite but you would like it to appear on the weekly calendar just submit a building use form. It's a great way to let everyone know about all of the wonderful activities.
