From the Pastor

As my time at First Church draws to a close, I have been thinking about these eleven years. All of us are different now than we were eleven years ago, and though First Church is in a different place, still we are vibrant and vital, still fully engaged in the ministry and mission to which God calls us, still devoting all the resources we can gather and deploy to strengthening God's Kingdom among us and across the globe. What a privilege it has been to be a part of this community of faith for a small part of your journey.

I'm rooting through files and papers, books and mementoes that I have gathered through forty years of ministry. As you can imagine, I'm saving some things (too many!!), parting with some things, and rediscovering things I've forgotten about. I came across the outline of the first sermon I offered here at First Church, on July 4, 2004. In it is a story that I'd like to repeat for you here, because it is even more true now than it was then.

Stan Musial played baseball for the St. Louis Cardinals for 22 years. After that he was manager and Vice President of the club. Musial always wore a smile and meant it, never argued calls, and always enjoyed the game and the other players who shared the field with him. When asked by a reporter, "How do you, after so many years, maintain your boyish enthusiasm, your excitement for baseball?" He said that he had never lost his sense of awe that he was privileged to play on the same field as Babe Ruth, Jackie Robinson, Mickey Mantle, Leo Durocher, and so many others. "Who am I to have this opportunity?" he asked.

On July 4, 2004, I understood what Stan Musial was talking about. I stood before the esteemed congregation of First Church as your pastor and marveled at your faithfulness, your generosity, your sense of mission and your commitment to the ministry of Christ Jesus. Now I marvel at those same things even more.

Through the past decade we have seen, and continue to experience, unanticipated difficult times. Our nation and the world experienced a remarkable economic challenge in 2008 and since...from which we are still recovering. We have seen the global battle against terrorism move in increasingly unsettling directions. In our North American culture values associated with community, justice, family, generosity and honesty, among others, have eroded at a remarkable rate. All these things we, the Church, resist and challenge as we work to strengthen community, family, generosity, peace and justice in all our relationships.

First Church's ministry and witness have challenged all these trends and stood to represent the Prince of Peace at every opportunity and in more ways than I can catalogue. For all this and or so much more I offer you my admiration and my thanks. "Who am I to have had this opportunity?"

Pastor Mike

Stewardship

I hope you are enjoying the 2015 Stewardship Campaign and the weekly Stewardship Seconds during each Sunday service. It really is amazing the number of ministries, and the various types of ministries that are supported by our annual unified budget. The congregation is to be commended for their generous and consistent support each and every year. But this year, we have great plans (and needs) for our offerings, above and beyond the “normal” giving levels. At this point, that gap shortfall is estimated to be about $50,000 (about 5-6%).

Jesus talked often in the Bible about truly being rich. In Luke 15, he warns all of us about covetousness, and how our life does NOT consist in the abundance of the things we possess.

In order to be “rich toward God”, we need to lay up our treasures to heaven, not for ourselves. It is our hope that our annual giving will be enough to continue to support and possibly expand many of the important ministries/activities here at FUMC.

During June’s “Stewardship Seconds”, we will concentrate on the ministries that are supported by the “Pastors”. It is true that a large portion of our annual budget goes toward support of our Pastors (including salaries, healthcare, retirement, housing expenses, and travel costs). But the job description for the Pastors is much more than just Sunday morning church services. Besides preparing for Sunday morning worship services, there is planning for the Anchor services, Rejoicing Spirits, and other special services throughout the year (especially during Lent and Advent). The Pastors also plan and lead many Weddings and Funeral services throughout the year. Pastoral Care is a large part of their commitment. This includes visits to Hospitals, Nursing Homes, Rehab centers, and the homebound. Also included under Pastoral Care is pre-marital counseling, and grief, marital, and other personal counseling care. The Pastors also must assume CEO responsibility for the administration and general oversight of all operations of the church, including staff supervision, planning, committee meetings, and district and denominational reporting. The Pastors positional authority puts them right in the middle of local, district, and annual conference denominational issues. It also provides them with committee and Board of Directors opportunities with local charitable and other important denominational organizations. In their “spare time”, they also lead Bible Studies and provide small group leadership support, among other weekly church commitments. During June, be sure to listen and watch as we water and nourish the “Pastors’ Root”. If we have roots “Grounded in Faith”, we will be able to “Grow to Serve”.

Staff Parish Relations

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

Most people experience some difficulty learning the names of the people they meet. Think of the challenge posed by the need to learn almost 1000 names. Drawing on the special powers granted the Staff/Parish Relations Committee in times of transition, the Appellation Protocol is hereby invoked. When one encounters Denny or Betsy Keller, one prefaces the conversation with one's name. This practice continues until Denny and Betsy begin the conversation with one's own name.

It wouldn't hurt to wear your name tag.

Thank you for your cooperation ~ SPRC

Why Wear a NameTag in Church?

When large groups of people get together where there are potential new faces, name tags help to break the ice. And with Pastor Keller and his wife, Betsy, arriving in July, just imagine how overwhelming it will be for him to learn everyone's name!

Name tags invite people to greet one another and help newcomers to get to know people more easily. Think about it: How many relationships are you missing out on because you don't know someone's name? So let's get in the habit of wearing our name tags! Check your mailbox... If you don't have a name tag please email adultministry@fumchurch.com or call Tina Eaton at 766-4611, extension 104.

Always be eager to practice hospitality! (Romans 12:13)

VIM Workcamp to Clearfield County, PA

It's not too late to sign up for the Susquehanna Conference's Volunteers-In-Mission (VIM) workcamp in the Allport/Bigler/Woodland area of Clearfield County, PA from Sunday, June 21 through Friday, June 26. This is the fourth annual VIM workcamp to the Allport/Bigler/Woodland area, and there is still much work to be done helping the elderly, homebound, and economically struggling residents of those communities. Reverend Jeff Fisher from Calvary UMC in Harrisburg heads up this workcamp. Jeff can be reached at 717-545-0021 or via email at jfisher@susumc.org for more details. Come and work for the entire week if you are able, or come for just part of the week if that's all your schedule allows. Adult Ministry

“Go and Make Disciples” ~ Summer Sunday School 2015

In Matthew 28:19 the disciples are each commissioned by Jesus to go and make disciples. As disciples of Jesus, we are each called to do the same, and not just here, but in all nations! What does that mean? It means that we are each given the power and authority by Jesus to teach others about Him. How do the people of First Church do this? The ways are endless!

This summer join us as we engage in various ministries, missions and discussions focused on how we make disciples. Come to actively participate, gain new experiences and discover or rediscover your calling to teach and show others the love of Christ.

Combined Adult Summer Sunday School will begin on July 12 and run through September 6. Children and youth are also invited to attend. The schedule is being planned now so if you have a ministry/mission that you would like to share with the congregation on a Sunday morning and it has an “active” component (something that those in attendance can participate in helping with) please contact Tina Eaton right away at 766-4611 or email adultministry@fumchurch.com.

Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit... Matthew 28:19

Summer Bible Study

Summer is a great time to participate in a short-term Bible study, and a new study is set to begin on June 17! The study being offered is written by Philip Yancey and is called “Vanishing Grace: What Ever Happened to the Good News?” As Christians, our views are often counter-cultural and misunderstood. In this 5-week, video and discussion-based study, we will explore what kind of news is good to a culture that thinks it has rejected Christian views, and learn more effective ways to communicate the Good News in a way that will disarm even the most cynical.

This study will meet on Wednesday evenings from June 17 to July 15 from 6:45 – 8:15 pm. You can choose two ways to study:

1. Simply come for the video and discussion on Wednesday evenings. All materials for discussion will be provided.
2. Come on Wednesday evenings for the video and discussion, AND read the book ahead of time. (The book is available for you to purchase for $11.49 at christianbook.com. The Kindle version is available for $9.99 at amazon.com.)

This study will be facilitated by Tina Eaton. Kindly let her know you are coming by emailing adultministry@fumchurch.com or sign up at the display in the main lobby.

Facilities

This may sound like a broken record, but it's been another busy month for maintaining and improving First Church's facilities. Much of the Trustees efforts in the past month have been focused on readying the new parsonage for the arrival of Rev. Dennis Keller and his wife Betsy in early June prior to assuming his duties as senior pastor of First Church on 1 July. The parsonage search committee, headed by Amy Erno (President of the Board of Trustees), found a great house at 524 Colony Road in Camp Hill that met the bulk of the Conference's parsonage recommendations at what we felt was a reasonable price. So funds were borrowed from the Conference Loan Fund to make the purchase, and now the hard work is underway to turn that house into a home before Rev. and Mrs. Keller's arrival. Thanks to everyone who is assisting in the process, with a special shout out to Judi Buddenbaum and Marcia Espenshade for their tireless painting efforts.

Wouldn't it be great if that was the only project in our hopper this month? Sure would, but then my life wouldn't be nearly as interesting as it proves to be on an ongoing basis. We had a great turnout for our work day at the end of April spreading mulch in our flower beds and cleaning up around the exterior of our property. Many hands did make light work of that project! Thank you! Painting of the alley stairwell from the main floor down to Fellowship Hall was completed. New casters were installed on the large prep tables in the kitchen to provide for easier reconfiguring of the table alignment to meet user needs and facilitate post-event cleanup. The stump of the diseased weeping cherry tree along Frederick Street near King Alley that we cut down in April was recently ground out and the three overgrown yews that surrounded the tree were removed. We are looking to re-landscape that area in conjunction with an Eagle Scout project being developed by Matt Canonizado, and will keep you posted as that effort progresses.

There are quite a few projects on our near term "to do" list including paving, sealing and restriping of our parking lots, replacing the spotlights high above the choir loft, repairs to our storage shed and the stone wall around the playground area, replacing the rooftop exhaust fan servicing the Education wing restrooms, renovating the women's restroom on the second floor of the Education wing (on hold until the fall when Bill Seig will be available to assist), and painting in the Frederick Street stairwell (main floor to balcony) and the senior pastor's office. A contract was recently signed for asbestos remediation and restoration work in the lower level resulting from last year's sewage pump malfunction, so that work should be happening soon. I am also taking a hard look at the control systems for all of our HVAC equipment in an attempt to take advantage of today's technology to improve operations and reduce our energy costs.

Please be sure let me know if you see something broken or have an idea for improving our church facility. I greatly appreciate your help in identifying problems as they occur so they can be addressed before they become major issues. Thank you.

Roger Walton, Facilities Manager

Scholarships 2015-1026

The Board of Trustees is now accepting scholarship applications for the 2015-2016 academic year. First Church has three scholarship funds: Comfort Education Fund for students who are approved candidates for pastoral ministry; Brandt Scholarship Fund for students with disabilities, and Zimmerman Youth Scholarship Fund for students who have been active participants in FUMC's youth department. Complete the application and return it to Cheryl Mengle, Board of Trustees by June 30, by putting it in her mailbox or emailing it to cmengle1@verizon.net. Scholarship awards will be paid directly to the school for tuition only. See Cheryl or Lisa Aronson for an application.

Library

It is finally spring/summer, and I am really enjoying it. Yesterday was Mother's day so I am in a sentimental mood. As many of you may remember, I had often said I wanted to open this type of church library for my children because they loved to read so much and there wasn't Christian fiction available at the public library. Unfortunately, it never happened while they were teenagers, but it still pleases me to be able to offer the best Christian fiction to all of you: a seed planted and harvested years later. It is even better when one of my daughters will say, "I came across a great series—you should get it for the library". I hope you like this new series as much as my daughter Kris and I do. Oh, yes, need I mention it is a romantic suspense series?

Patricia Bradley is making her debut as a Christian writer. Shadows of the Past is the first book in the Logan Point series. Taylor Martin, criminal profiler and psychology professor prides herself on being able to solve any crime except her own family mystery. Her father vanished twenty years ago without a trace. When Taylor finally gets her first lead on him, she returns home to Logan's Point, Mississippi to follow up on her clue. But the closer she gets, the more obvious it is that someone else doesn't want her to find her father. Nick Sinclair, a mystery writer, is in Logan's Point in search of his long lost brother. After meeting up with Taylor and joining forces with her, all he seems to find is trouble. Join in their chase to see if they can unlock their secrets and have a future together!!

The second book, A Promise to Protect, stars the sheriff of Logan's Point, Ben Logan. Leigh Somorall is Ben's old flame from ten years ago and time has not erased Ben's interest in her. When she calls him out of the blue and begs him to protect her brother Tony, little does Ben know he will soon be protecting Leigh from the thugs that are after her brother. This is a suspenseful mystery filled with mistakes, revenge and danger, but also the redeeming wonder of faith and love. It will leave you tapping your toe waiting for Gone without a Trace that is coming the end of June.

If you want something lighter—something you can read easily on the back porch while sipping an iced latté, A Chance of Loving You might just be a great read for you. It contains three novellas written by top writers: Terri Blackstock, Candace Calvert, and Susan May Warren. Each romance centers around the main character entering a competition—from the lottery to baking to a fishing competition. I will let you find out if love is the winning prize for each of these women. From the reviews I have seen, this book delivers all that is promised as a romance. As an added bonus each author has included a recipe from the story. Win-Win!

If none of these books appeal to you, stop by and see what else the library has to offer. It is a treasure trove given to you by the church—don't miss it.

The library will be having their annual book sale August 15. We will be accepting gently used books, CD, puzzles and DVDs. Leave them in our green bin outside the library (better attach a note so they are not mistake for something else) or see us on Sunday morning about a drop off. Thank you in advance and plan to be at our sale to stock your own shelves.

See you in the library!
