Opening Doors with Christ, One Another and Our Neighbors

From Pastor Denny...

"Take Time to Breathe"

Wow, First Church, you are surely off to a busy start in 2019! As I write this, we are not yet two months into the year, and already you've done so much!

- You've participated in weekend retreats for Men and Women at Mount Asbury, and you've attended the amazing Salt 'n Light Youth Ministries winter event, Zeteo, in Altoona.
- You've come out to worship God every Sunday morning, even on two Sundays when other area churches cancelled due to bad weather, and you've focused on building relationships in the church (WE > ME) and in the community (See All the People).
- You've attended monthly Rejoicing Spirits services, joined in an inspiring evening of Prayer and Praise led by our youth, and celebrated Youth Sunday at both services February 17th.
- You've kicked off another great season of Wonderful Wednesday for children, and you've enthusiastically rehearsed for our annual Passion Play in April.
- You've sent Kristin Brown and Tiffany Holland on a mission trip to continue our vital partnership with our sister church in Taiama, Sierra Leone. You've also welcomed a missionary couple from Bethlehem in the Holy Land, and supported numerous mission projects and missionaries with your prayers, your gifts, and your service.
- You've prayed for our United Methodist Church, as delegates engaged in a Special General Conference in St. Louis in late-February.
- You've continued the search for a full-time Worship Arts Director.
- You've supported renovations to our sanctuary, including a beautifully crafted platform to increase the size of the chancel area, an ADA approved ramp for greater accessibility, and other projects to enhance our worship space.
- You've joined in Sunday school classes, Bible studies, and small groups, supported Little Friends Pre-school, and extended such care to our church family and community. You've provided funding for ministry, maintained excellent facilities, and offered creative programs.

I could add to the list. So could you. In so many ways you open doors with Christ, one another, and your neighbors. With all of this activity, I also want to remind you, as Praying Followers of Jesus, of the spiritual necessity of slowing down to be with God. Jesus calls us to abide in him.

<sup>5</sup> I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, then you will produce much fruit. Without me, you can't do anything. (John 15:5)

This Lenten Season, I invite you to slow down to be with God. Take time to breathe. Worship weekly. Read the Bible daily. Abide in Christ, always, so that you may produce much fruit!

Library

I'm sitting at my kitchen table wondering when I will see the sun again. It is still February as I write this, and I know that March can be a dreary month. Well, at least I can brighten my days with some really good books. The minute I saw these two books on the Christian Book Distributors web site, I knew they would be good for the library. And if you have ever read this newsletter or you know me at all, you will know why I was so drawn to them.

The Coffee Club Mysteries: 6 Whodunits are Brewing in Small-Town Kansas is light fiction-filled with book club ladies, mysteries, and, of course, coffee. Each novella is written by a different author, but they all revolve around Morgan Butler and the Coffee Perk Shop she owns in Oak Grove, Kansas. Oak Grove is very much like Cabot Cove, Maine as dead people keep showing up in this small town, and it is up to a group of coffee drinking book club ladies to solve each mystery. I won't give the plots away, but I will warn you these books might make you crave more coffee—but at least the caffeine will allow you to stay up late reading.

Brunch at the Bittersweet Café by Carla Laureano is the perfect match with the coffee club book. I selected the second book in The Saturday Night Supper Club series because I felt it fit better with a coffee book, but you may want to start with book one aptly titled the Saturday Night Supper Club. Baker and pastry chef Melody Johansson is stuck in a rut, not only in her work, but also in her social life. Her night baking job at a chain bakery doesn't allow her to use her talents as a classically trained French baker and her love life is a disaster AGAIN. Then she meets Justin Keller who arrives at her workplace during a snowstorm, and she thinks this might be a sign that her life is turning around. Justin is in about the same place in his life as Melody. While exploring a relationship, both Melody and Justin are offered their dream jobs, but at opposite sides of the country. Melody wonders if she should keep with her dream of her own bakery or chuck it all and follow the man she has come to love. I think if you like romance, you will love this series.

I just wanted to mention to all of you who loved The Montana Rescue series that Susan May Warren is bringing out a new series called The Montana Marshalls with the first installment due mid-March titled Knox. Something to brighten up March!!!

If neither of these books interests you, stop in the library and a volunteer will help you find just the right book—many genres to choose from! Now off for a large latte, maybe a pastry and some quality time with my sewing machine. More next month.

See you in the library.

Lenten Sermon Series

In the Bible, names were more than just a way to identify a person: The name itself revealed something about a person's character. Their name could relate to the circumstances of their birth (Moses means "drawn from the water"); a specific characteristic about the person (Esau means "hairy one"); or a praise to God (Jeremiah means "God is exalted"). A name also said something about a person's destiny (Jesus means "Saviour").

The Old Testament uses more than 85 different names for God. Each name reveals something about God's character, mostly related to a need in people's lives. God's people called on the Lord for provision, peace, healing, forgiveness, strength, hope, victory and so much more. Each name expressed confidence that God can meet every need.

Join us during Lent as we learn more about some of these names in our new worship sermon series, "Praying Through the Names of God". Come to experience a deeper relationship with God, whose many names reveal his steadfast love for us all.

Day of Pampering

Thank you to everyone who volunteered time and talents for Day of Pampering. Did you realize there were volunteers who prayed, moved furniture, decorated nearly every space on the first and basement floors, packed gift and thank you bags, greeted guests, prepared or cooked and served breakfast and lunch, blessed hands, helped service providers set up, hosted and decorated lunch tables, painted nails, waxed hands, prepared teas, coffee and desserts, prayed with and over guests, washed dishes, helped service providers pack up, moved the furniture back in place, cleaned up spaces, put all the decorating away, put all the dishes away and soooooo much more. Sounds like a lot, doesn't it? None of it would be possible without the help you provide and the support of our First Church community. THANK YOU! Following is a list of providers who participated this year. If you find yourself in need of any of these service please consider one of the providers who gave of their time and talent.

Mission Meal to Support Local Ministries

The United Methodist Women Deborah Circle will hold a Mission Meal on Sunday, March 17. Join us in Fellowship Hall after the 10:45 worship service for a wonderful meal of chili, cornbread and brownies. Takeout available after Sunday School. Proceeds from the Mission Meal support local ministries that help women, children and youth. If you have questions, contact Sandy Walton at swalton54@comcast.net.

Special Giving Sunday, March 31 – UMCOR (United Methodist Committee on Relief)

Throughout the year, United Methodists receive special offerings to support our mission in the U.S. and around the world. At First Church we support these offerings through our annual Missions budget. In March, the UMC observes UMCOR Sunday, formerly One Great Hour of Sharing. When disaster strikes around the globe, United Methodist Committee on Relief, UMCOR, is prepared to act. “Since 1940, when UMCOR’s forerunner was established to meet the needs of those suffering overseas at the onset of World War II, we’ve continued to respond to those in desperate need—today throughout more than eighty countries around the world. The response of UMCOR isn’t something “they” do, it’s something “we” do.” For more information about UMCOR, visit their website at: <https://www.umcor.org/>.

Help First Church Grow Through Planned Endowment Support

“But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven...For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

Matthew 6:20-21

Do you want to support First United Methodist Church and the Endowment Fund, but think you cannot afford it? There are many ways that you can contribute now, or plan to contribute in the future, to ensure a solid foundation for First Church.

For example, if you are 70½ or older, did you know that you can make a charitable gift from your IRA account directly to First Church?

Endowment support can also be provided in the following ways.

- Gift annuities
- Bequest in a will
- Life insurance policy (First Church as beneficiary)
- Stock Transfer
- Contributions in Memory or Honor of Loved Ones
- Cash contributions

Contributions to the Endowment Fund last forever. That’s because the contributions are never spent. They are invested to generate income, which is distributed annually to support our congregation’s many missions and ministries.

If you would like to learn more about the Endowment Fund, please call or approach Bob Wertz, Sr., Endowment Committee Chairperson, or either of First Church’s pastors.
