Opening Doors with Christ, One Another and Our Neighbors

"Worship Matters"

On Sunday, July 15, Dave Florey, chair of our Staff-Parish Relations Committee, announced that effective August 15, Jody Brinley was stepping down as our Director of Music. Jody served First Church for nine years and enriched our worship by directing our Sanctuary Choir and coordinating our music ministry. On Sunday, August 5, we celebrated Jody's ministry at the 8:15 service and at a fellowship time between services.

As we look to the future, representatives from our Staff-Parish Relations Committee, our church staff, and youth and adults leaders have been meeting with Dr. Douglas Curry, Director of Worship Arts at Messiah College. He has been guiding us through a process to develop a new position to direct the worship arts at First Church. In July, the Staff-Parish Relations Committee approved a job description for a Director of Worship Arts. This position will be recommended to our Finance Committee and Administrative Board in the near future.

We will keep you informed as we work out the details for this new position. As a congregation we are so very blessed with adults, children and youth who are gifted in worship arts, including music, dance, drama, and the use of media. The group of 25 people that has been involved in this process is very excited about how the leadership of a Director of Worship Arts will enhance our worship at 8:15, 10:45, and other special services.

As we continue the process of developing this position and searching for a Worship Arts Director, I am glad to report that our excellent music ministry will continue .

At the 8:15 service, Frank Heberlig will serve as organist. Flossie Ryder will direct Sounds of Worship, with Karen Philp as their accompanist.

At the 10:45 service, Trace Morgan and Allison Ometz will lead our Praise Team. This past week, the Staff Parish Committee asked Allison to serve as our interim director of Sanctuary Choir. We are still looking for an accompanist for the choir. If you have any recommendations, please see Allison.

Kathie Bittenbender will lead our bell ministry for adults and children.

Our Youth Praise Band will support our Sunday night youth gatherings, and will also be involved in Sunday morning worship as well. Our children will participate in Worship Arts during Wonderful Wednesday, which begins in October. They will offer choral music, dance, and drama in worship.

We all come to worship to bless God, to serve God, to praise God. I am asking for your support as we offer our best to God in worship. Please pray for those who currently lead and serve in our worship services, and for those discerning our next steps toward a new Director of Worship Arts. If you feel called to join one of our choirs, to serve on our praise team, to operate sound and media, or to serve in other ways, please reach out to me or Pastor John or a member of our staff.

It's such a joy to worship with you in this wonderfully gifted congregation!

Pastor Denny

Scholarship Awards

The Board of Trustees granted 2018-2019 scholarships from the Zimmerman Youth Scholarship Fund to twelve of our students pursuing post-secondary education. This year's awardees include Graham Bowen (West Chester), Angelica Brill (Penn State), Matthew Canonizado (Gettysburg), Alex Clark (Eastern), Joshua/Kyle/Ryan Eaton (Lebanon Valley), Joshua Herring (Lebanon Valley), Lauren LaPointe (University of Iowa), Timothy Losh (Millersville), Ethan Spencer (Penn State) and Seth Wickenheiser (Lancaster Bible). The scholarship awards are not large monetarily, but they help to reinforce our Christian love for these young persons as they take this next step in their life's journey and aren't here with us on a weekly basis.

The Board of Trustees also granted a 2018-2019 scholarship from the Comfort Education Fund to our Youth Pastor Lisa Aronson as she continues her studies towards a Master of Divinity degree from Evangelical Seminary.

Congratulations to all of our scholarship awardees and best wishes for an outstanding academic year!

Library

On this beautiful August evening, I am wondering were summer went, and if someone turned time to double time. Everyone is now preparing for back to school and everything that entails. If this were my first book report of the school year, I'd go back to last month's article as I think those two books (Called to Protect and Auschwitz Lullaby) inspired me so much that the newsletter almost wrote itself. Well, time to quit staring out the window, and tell you about some other inspiring reads.

It is often said that history repeats itself, and I often find books repeat the same theme—the story is just adjusted to a new time and place. The Hope Jar by Wanda Brunstetter is such a story. Michelle Taylor is homeless and hopeless, until the elderly Lapp family of Lancaster County mistakenly identifies her as their long-lost granddaughter. Even though Michelle knows it's wrong to deceive these wonderful people, she is feeling secure and loved for the first time in a long time. As she debates about how to get out of this lie, she discovers a blue jar in the barn filled with slips of papers containing prayers, quotes and inspirations to her budding faith. Of course, I won't spoil the plot by telling you how she reveals to her new family she really isn't their granddaughter.

If you haven't been in the library lately, you may have missed the book Tear Soup, brought to us by Janice Bowen, the Director of Congressional Care Ministry. It's a book about grief that is appropriate for all ages. It explains that grief is a normal part of life, and everyone grieves in different ways and for different lengths of time. When you first look at the book, it looks like it is for children, but it can comfort anyone. Another plus to this book has a directory in the back of the book of where to get help for all ages. You might want to have a look at this book before you need it as a resource or need it as a comfort gift to a grieving family.

Lastly, the library would like to thank everyone who donated books or purchased books from our annual book sale. Through these books sales the library is almost self-sustaining and we owe it all to you. THANK YOU!!

See you in the library!

Igniting a Passion to Pray

Women tend to worry – it's just a part of our human nature, but prayer has the ability to change everything! This fall First Church will be offering a study called Igniting a Passion to Pray. This study will guide women through the Four Steps of Prayer; praise, confession, thanksgiving and intercession. Come to grow, gain confidence in your prayer life and discover the important role you have in releasing God's power to accomplish His work on earth! This 12-week study, facilitated by Nadine Ogden and Merri Shellenberger, begins September 10 on Monday evenings from 6:45 – 8:00 pm at the church. Sign up at the Welcome Center display. Workbook cost is $15.

Bless Our Schools Sunday

Bless Our Schools Sunday is coming up on September 16 - you won't want to miss worship that day! Together we will pray for our schools, teachers, staff and students so they are ready to stand firm in Christ this school year.

Moms in Prayer

Did you know that through Moms in Prayer International, thousands of mothers around the world gather together in groups to passionately pray for the lives of their children in more than 140 countries? The impact on children, their teachers and their schools is profound, and it is life-changing for the mothers who pray as well!

In addition to groups meeting in homes to pray for specific schools, and the children and teachers who attend those schools, there is an “open group” that meets here at First Church. This group, led by Deb Noss, will resume meeting for the 2018/19 school year on Monday evenings beginning August 27 from 7:00 – 8:00 pm in the Prayer Room (2nd floor elevator landing).

All mothers are invited and no prayer experience is required. Your child can be any age/any stage of life. And what is prayed in the group stays in the group, so don't worry – your prayer requests will remain private within the group.

Please contact Deb Noss at sdppp@msn.com or Tina Eaton at adultministry@fumchurch.com or call 766-4611 if you have questions or would like to join this group. You can also check out momsinprayer.org if you would like more information about this organization or would like to search for another group that fits your schedule.

FORE!! Golf Anyone??

There are several opportunities for golf:

- ☆ Emmaus Walk is a spiritual renewal program intended to strengthen the local church through the development of Christian disciples and leaders. Each year the Men's and Women's Walks are held in the spring and fall, with a Chrysalis Flight for teens in February. Help support these spiritual events by playing in the Golf Outing fundraiser to be held on Sunday, September 23 at 2:00 p.m. at Rich Valley Golf Course. The fee is just $65 and includes Scramble start, light lunch and picnic style dinner. To register, to be a sponsor, or if you have questions, contact Tom Ziegler at 717-525-0955 or hafphast@hotmail.com. Thanks for your support of this life-changing event!
- ☆ Men's golf outing has been scheduled for Friday afternoon, October 12. Four tee times have been reserved (16 golfers) beginning around 12:30pm into the afternoon at the Armitage Golf Club on Orrs Bridge Rd. The format will be a "scramble" in which all players hit each of their shots from where the best previous shot of the foursome landed, ending with a team score instead of individual scores. Individual sign-up is preferred over foursomes, as we plan to randomly draw names for the foursome pairings. This should make men of all golf skill levels comfortable participating in an afternoon of fun and fellowship. At the end of the round, men are invited to stay for dinner on the deck of the Caddy Shack restaurant on premises, and spouses/guests are invited to join us for a group dinner. The cost of golf is approximately $33 (depending on the number of golfers we get signed up), with dinner at your own expense. Space is limited and spots are bound to go quickly so please contact Barry Eaton to reserve your spot with payment as soon as - possible (theaton5@verizon.net) or drop a note and check in his church mailbox.

Small group meetings will be held on the 3rd Wednesday of each month from 8-9:30 pm. The next meeting is September 19. All men are welcome and encouraged to join us. Currently the group is watching a video lesson with follow-up discussion. The September meeting will be held at the Eaton home in Mechanicsburg. Contact John Bowen (bowenhome720@gmail.com) or Barry Eaton (theaton5@verizon.net) if you have questions or would like more information about this group.

Men's Breakfast

An open invitation is extended to any and all men who want to gather for good food and light-hearted fellowship on the first Saturday morning of each month. Please come join us at Brother's Restaurant, located at 705 Gettysburg Pike in Mechanicsburg. Even though it is Labor Day weekend, we are sticking with the normal schedule this month - our next gathering will be on Saturday, September 1 at 7:30 am. Hope to see you there!

Retuning to First Church

StrongWomen/Growing Stronger Strength Training Program

First United Methodist Church in Mechanicsburg and Penn State Extension will be teaming up again to offer the StrongWomen/Growing Stronger Program this fall. This eight week program is geared for middle-aged to older women and men and is based upon years of research on how strength training and proper nutrition improve the health of women and men of all ages. The program was developed to help individuals increase their strength, bone density, balance and energy and help them look and feel better. Participants will meet two times a week for one hour sessions. There is a $60 fee for this program.

This session will be held on Mondays and Wednesdays, Sept. 17 – Nov. 14, 1:00 – 2:00 pm, in the Fellowship Hall (no class Oct. 8 or 10). Mandatory paperwork must be completed in order to participate in the program and individuals age 70 and over must get a doctor's permission. Past participants must pre-register. Instructor is Cherry France.

For more information or to register for the program, go to: <http://extension.psu.edu/strongwomen/events> and search for Cumberland County classes or call 1-877-345-0691. Contact the Penn State Extension office at 240-6500 or Nancy Rouch at ner10@psu.edu with any questions about the program.

Do You Have Your Clearances?

As we prepare for the fall it's a great time to update your clearances if expired and make sure you are ready for the great opportunity of partnering in ministry alongside our children and youth.

Do you not have a regular scheduled volunteering opportunity? That's okay, get your clearances anyway! One, they are FREE for volunteers. Two, you will be able to serve if an opportunity arises. This way if God gives you a "shoulder tap" you will be set to go!

If you currently serve as a partner in ministry in any capacity within the children or youth department, you must update your clearances for our Safe Sanctuary Policy every 5 years. (This includes all one time volunteering engagements such as VBS or the Sleep Out). Any clearances older than 5 years will no longer be a valid.

Please obtain an instruction sheet (located in the children and youth form area or online under the "children's" tab of the church website) and follow the instructions and begin the process of securing or updating your clearances.

Thank you for your partnering in ministry and helping us keep our children and youth straight!

Thank you...

We would like to thank everyone for the many cards and prayers we have received over the past few months. We are so appreciative of the continued cards, calls and visits by Pastor Denny, Betsy and Janice. Your faithfulness is evident by your actions. God bless for all and thank you again.

Dear First Church Family,

How great to have all the kindness given to me.

The flowers were beautiful and were very much enjoyed. And the food was also delicious and so much so I divided it in smaller containers so I have about 4 more evening meals, all very good.

How thoughtful and kind, and my arm is somewhat better, but will have it in a sling for 2 more weeks. I do thank God it was my right arm because I am left handed.

Blessings to all,

Peg Hassinger
