Opening Doors with Christ, One Another and Our Neighbors

“One Another One Another”

On Sunday Aug. 14, First Church held a “40 Years in Ministry” celebration for Betsy and me. We were blessed beyond words by two special services, including the sermon by our “surprise preachers,” our daughters, Jen and Rachel. The music was inspiring! The fellowship time in between services with amazing sticky buns, a slide show of photos from our ministry across the years and many delightful conversations blessed us, too!

Betsy and I are grateful to everyone involved in our celebration! We will treasure the memory of this day and your cards, gifts and kind words for years to come. Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

As I reflect on the people and places we’ve been blessed to serve over the past 40 years, including our loving First Church family, a phrase that appears frequently in the New Testament comes to mind: “one another.” In every place we’ve served, we’ve witnessed how beautiful it is when sisters and brothers in Christ “one another one another.”

In his letter to the Galatians, the apostle Paul writes, “The only thing that really counts is faith that shows itself through love” (Galatians 5:6 NIV). If you were to ask Paul what this “faith that shows itself through love” looks like, he would likely rattle off a list of instructions that include the words, “one another.” “Build one another up.” “Forgive one another.” “Bear with one another.” “Serve one another.” The list goes on and on...

It’s likely that after each “one another” Paul would add the words, “just as.” Each of the 59 “one another’s” in the New Testament is a specific application of Jesus’ command, that we “love one another just as I have loved you.” (John 15:12)

In worship this fall, we’re going to consider some of the “one another’s” in the New Testament. These instructions seem especially timely today as we build relationships with “one another” in the church that reflect the love of Christ to the world around us. Join us each week as we deepen our relationships with Christ, one another and our neighbors, learning to love one another just as Christ has loved us.

Love in Christ,
Pastor Denny

From the Library

When I write the newsletter, I usually look at the new books that have come in during the month, check the reviews on-line and then try to come up with some entertaining prelude to get all of you interested in reading these books. As I checked out Wanda Brunstetter’s website, I see that she was one of the founders of Amish fiction and has written more than 100 books, sometimes with other family members, but mostly by herself. I was marveling at how she came up with so many ideas as I sit here and wonder how to start this newsletter. Then I remember that Pam, Fran and I started the library in October 1998. So, I have been writing this newsletter with Pam as my hardworking editor for 20 years. 20 years times 12 months come to 240 newsletters. I am way out in front of Ms. Brunstetter! No wonder I can't think of one more witty thing to say. Guess I will just skip to the book review this time.

The Apple Creek Announcement is the third book in Wanda Brunstetter's Creektown Discoveries Series. If she follows the usual format of Christian fiction writers, this should be the last book in this series, but there is no indication she is winding up the series. The first two books, The Walnut Creek Wish and The Sugarcreek Surprise arrived earlier this year. All three books are set in Amish communities in Ohio and are romances. Like the song says, "the course of true love never runs smooth", and that is the point in each of these books. You will have to read each book to the end to find out how each couple overcomes their difficulties to find a lasting relationship.

Patricia Bradley is finishing her Natchez Trace Park Rangers Series with a "protocol breaking" fourth book in the series titled, Deception. All four books are romantic suspense books set in Mississippi and this one not only involves park rangers, but also the FBI. Madison Thorn has transferred into the white-collar crimes department of the FBI after her last case turned extremely violent. She needs time to heal, but she doesn't want to leave her job. She is less than thrilled to be sent to the Natchez Park and finds she will be working with a former childhood friend slash enemy, Clayton Bradshaw. All too soon Madison finds herself in danger and will have to work with Clayton to solve the case and to stay safe. Reviewers have said that this story has more twists and turns than a pretzel—so plan to stay up late to finish it all in one sitting.

As you well know I am writing this before the book sale, but I want to thank you for all the donations and the continued support of the library.

See you in the library.

~Pam and Donna

The impact on children, their teachers and their schools is profound, and it is life-changing for the mothers who pray as well! In addition to groups meeting in homes to pray for specific schools, and the children and teachers who attend those schools, there is a group that meets here at First Church. This group, led by Deb Noss, has resumed meeting for the 2022/23 school year each Monday evenings from 7:30 – 8:30 p.m. in room 105, and all mothers/grandmothers are invited! No prayer experience is required, and your child can be any age/any stage of life. What is prayed in the group stays in the group, so don't worry – your prayer requests will remain private. ## Relationship Builder

Missional Hospitality

The practice of hospitality is part of our mission as Christ followers. Romans 12:13, Hebrews 13:2, and 1 Peter 4:9 all encourage us to offer hospitality to our neighbors, but who are our neighbors? By knowing who our neighbors are, we can become more attuned to how God wants us to connect with them and serve them. So, one question for you: What do you think the largest "phase of life" demographic group is in the community surrounding First Church?

- Young Adults/Singles (ages 18-34)
- Families - Parents with Children at Home or Empty Nesters (age 35-56)
- Boomers (ages 57-75)
- Senior Adults (76+)

The answer: Our community has a fairly equal number of both younger and older adults, however, the largest "Phase of Life" group is Families. Yet, that's one of the smallest groups of people seen in many of our churches right now. Why do you think that is? What do you think we can we do to connect with and serve the needs of families in our community? Over the next few weeks, please spend some time praying and thinking about the needs of both married and single parents raising their children, empty-nester parents and young people. If you have thoughts you would like to share, please contact Tina Eaton at 717-766-4611 or adultministry@fumchurch or Lori Hoffnagle at l\_hoffnagle@yahoo.com.

First Church Women

First Church Women

Want to join a group of caring women at First United Methodist? You may ask what age is this group; a group of caring women, some working some retired (but busier than when they worked). You're welcome to join the Deborah Circle as we reconvene from our summer break. We will meet on September 13 at 6:30 PM in the basement, room B003. All are invited. We meet every other month on the second Tuesday of the month. We will be starting a Study Gateway Bible study "When Strivings Cease" by Ruth Chou Simons. This study is for strivers, for those of us exhausted by the "You are enough-just improve yourself" narrative. The answer we're looking for is in the enduring gift of amazing grace. It's only when we receive that gift that our striving will cease! Previous projects our circle has done: November Food Basket (previously Thanksgiving meal basket) for a neighbor, New Hope Christmas Blessings sorting and Neighborhood Christmas angel tree, Easter time food basket for a neighbor; making/serving lunch at Neighborhood Center/New Hope in the summer. Pre-pandemic we dined out at a local restaurant on the months we didn't meet at the church. Contact Sandy Walton at 717-433-3687 (call or text) or swalton54@comcast.net with questions. Hop to see you on there!

Covered in Love Knitting Group

The Covered in Love Knitting Group has returned to in-person meetings every Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. and will gather downstairs in the Fellowship Hall. Feel free to join if you love to knit, crochet or do some other kind of crafty work. Questions? Contact Judi Buddenbaum at 717-697-2524 or ljbuddenbaum@verizon.net.

Widows and Widowers Fellowship

The widows/widowers fellowship is taking a pause for the month of August. Stay tuned for an upcoming gathering date in September.

Third Friday Food Trucks, Sept. 16!

The food trucks return to our parking lot on Friday, Sept. 16. This is a great opportunity to meet our neighbors in a fun and casual atmosphere! This month, we welcome the following gourmet food trucks: Audrey's Cup of Sunshine, Philly Cheesesteak, Mad Dash, Shredderz, Pretzel Spot, The Sweet Patch and Dough and Arrows (ice cream and cookie dough). We are always looking for help with set up and clean up. If you are interested in lending a hand with setting up tables and chairs or putting them away, we'd love to have you! Contact Lori Hoffnagle at l\_hoffnagle@yahoo.com for more details. The food trucks serve from 4:30 to 8 p.m. Mark your calendar for the remaining date, Oct. 21.

Camp Fancy Fundraising Gala, Saturday, Oct. 22, 2022 – Save the Date!

Everyone who values the power of camp and retreat experiences to change lives: this invitation is for you! Come one and come all for an evening of inspiration, fun and generosity. Camp Fancy means you can choose your attire from prom night outfits to outdoor gear- just be sure to have one part of your outfit that is “fancy” as part of the celebration. Enjoy the Wesley Forest grounds and a catered meal as we honor some special folks together, hear stories of making a difference and raise needed funds for the Camping & Retreat Ministry. This inaugural event will take place at Wesley Forest Camp and Retreat Center, 58 Wesley Forest Lane, Weikert, PA from 4:00 to 8 p.m. We will honor long-time volunteer and camp dean, David Poole, and enjoy special music, auction items, great food and much more! See all the details here: <https://susumcamps.org/gala>. To learn more about Camp Fancy, how to volunteer, making a donation or contributing an auction item, contact Camp and Retreat Ministries Board Members, Steve Noss (sdppp@msn.com) or Lori Hoffnagle (l\_hoffnagle@yahoo.com). ### Squares and Prayers

The quilters continue to sew and complete quilts at home. These quilts go to local hospices, fire and police departments and members of our church who are at need. Fidget mats are also being made and are available. Anyone who desires to sew kits together can find kits located near the Alley Entrance.

Generous Giver

FINANCIAL REPORT

Through July 31, 2022 58 % of year

General Fund

2022 budget	$ 925,985
Expected income-YTD	$ 540,157	(58% of budget)
Actual income -YTD	$ 532,097	(57% of budget)
Actual expenses-YTD	$ 516,565	(56% of budget)

Receipts year-to-date through the end of July are a bit down from our expectation. Keep in mind that the summer season is usually our slowest time of year. Expenses for the month of June were again favorable and our year-to-date “receipts over expenses” is positive $15,000. The staff at first church and its volunteers continue mindful stewardship of the gifts of our congregation and are working to open doors to others for the glory of God. We are grateful to all our congregation and guests who continue to support the work of First Church, as we serve the Lord by opening doors for all to know salvation through Jesus. We continue to ask for your prayers, your presence and your support through service and gifts to the mission of our First Church family. As we move into the end of the summer season, we look forward to having you join us online or in-person, serving the King together.

Change (or Paper) for Water!

Water is the foundation of our very lives; yet, according to CDC estimates, only 2% of the population in Sierra Leone has access to clean, readily available drinking water! Help us to support the Well Drilling Fund for Sierra Leone by dropping your loose change, or even paper bills, into the blue "Change for Water" bucket located back on the Sierra Leone mission table in the Main Entrance hallway. Donations from July totaled $20.75. 100% of your donations will be used to provide training and dig wells for schools and communities in need.

Little Free Pantry Mini Collection

Thanks for your support of the Little Free Pantry on our property. This small (but effective) way to bless our community has been very popular over the past two years. We have been able to keep up with the demand for food, but are starting to run low. If you would like to donate items, there is a collection basket inside the Alley Door entrance at the church. Most needed items include canned tuna/chicken, any type of boxed mac and cheese, small boxes of cereal, granola bars, individual snack items and small ready to eat meals. Please make sure they are non-perishable and not too far past the expiration dates. You can also drop off the items at the church office during regular business hours. If you have any questions, please contact Lori Hoffnagle at l\_hoffnagle@yahoo.com. Thanks for blessing our neighbors!

Annual Fall Picnic

Our all-church fall picnic is coming up on Sunday, Sept. 11. This year we are holding it at the pavilion at Pleasant View Park (90 Pleasant View Drive, Mechanicsburg, PA 17050). The picnic will begin with worship at the pavilion at 4:00 p.m., followed by a potluck supper and fellowship. Hot dogs, hamburgers, iced tea and water will be provided, but bring a side dish and/or dessert to share, along with your own place settings and lawn chairs to sit, relax and enjoy each other's company until the sun sets on a fun-filled day!

First Church Mission Moments...

And they'll know we are Christians by our love...

Recently, several First Church members became aware that a friend was battling cancer and needed emotional and spiritual support, along with help to cover mounting medical bills. This sweet woman is locally active as a business-woman and gives much to our community. After much prayer and discernment, First Church made a decision to host a special benefit event, and Eat, Pray, Shop was created! This event included vendors, gift baskets, a bake sale, food trucks and the opportunity to support and pray for our friend. We handed out 'prayer scrolls' at the event to those who were interested so they could pray the scripture on their scroll over her, and we gave her a basket full of prayer scrolls for her to pull out and pray when she needed to feel God's love.

She was able to attend the event and was overwhelmed with the love and support she felt! Here is how she described the day: "What made this day absolutely amazing is all the friends that came out to support me, friends I haven't seen in years. Thank you to each and every one of you for coming to give me a hug and words of encouragement. You are the reason I keep going on... It was such a great surprise and of course my tears wouldn't stop running. I am blessed. I am grateful. I really hit the jackpot with all of you. Thank you for all your support!!"

We are thankful to God for providing clear direction, the leadership and space to host this special Eat, Pray, Shop event, which allowed us to fulfill our First Church vision of "Opening doors with Christ, one another and our neighbors!"

We are blessed to be a blessing!
